Port Huron High School
Port Huron, Michigan

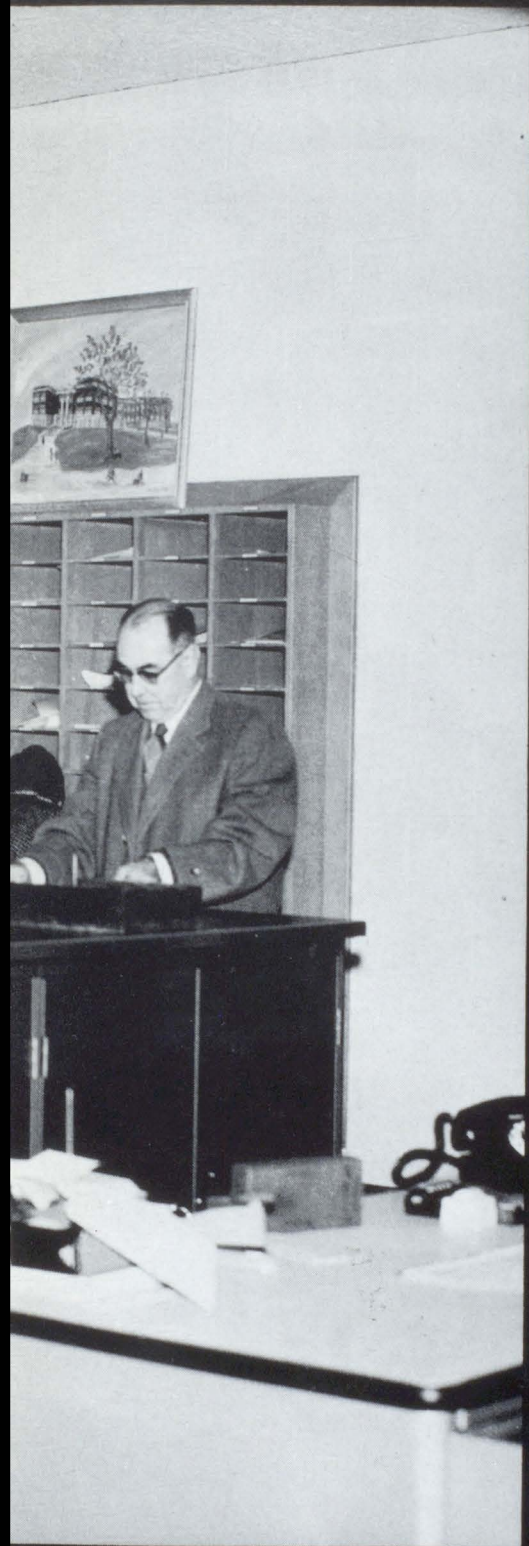

Foreword

A Year of Progress - 1960: for the city of Port Huron, in its civic development, and for its educational system, with an improved program. Progress, too, was the goal of the 1960 graduating class.

In this edition, the Student Staff has had but one objective: to capture a successful year at Port Huron High School. If the book will serve to bridge the past and bring to mind memories of joy and pleasure of the year just gone, it will have served its purpose.

With these thoughts, we proudly present to you, the students, your 1960 Student.

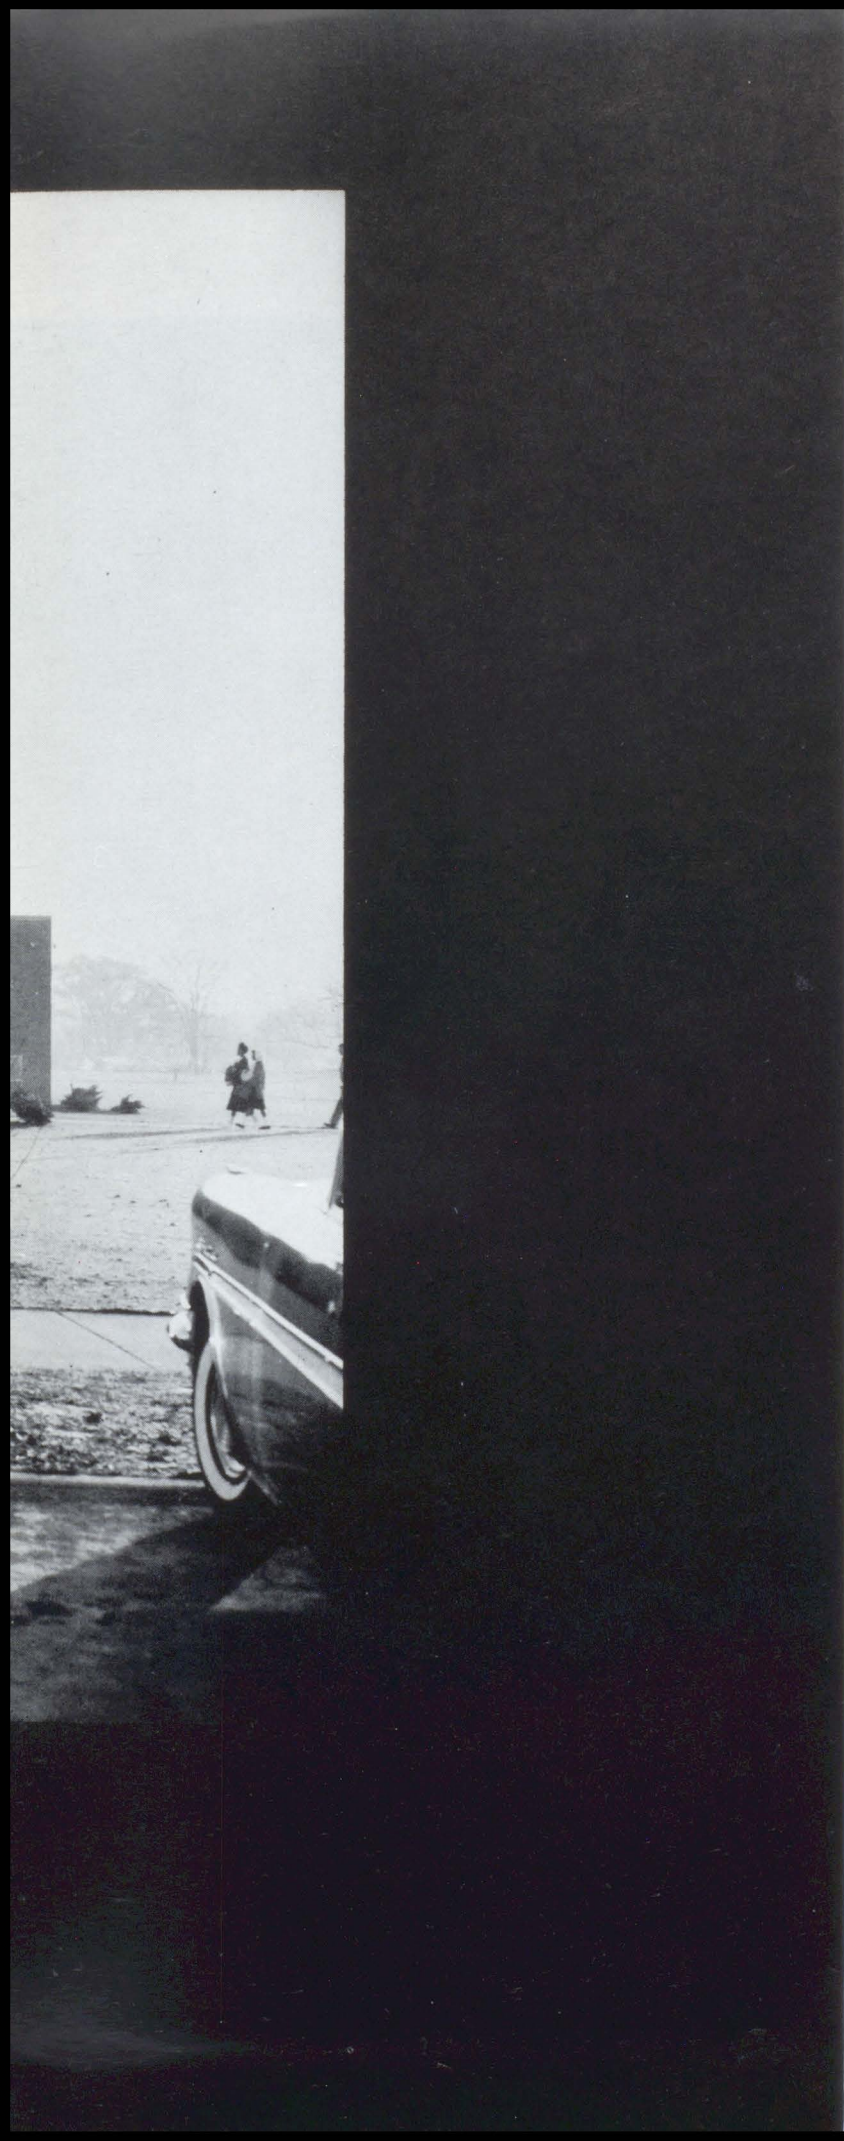

Dedication

The 1960 Student is proudly dedicated to our outstanding faculty, which has done so much to make our school year progressive and successful.

We wish to express our gratitude for their guidance in helping us to solve our many problems and for their enthusiastic assistance in situations which required the counsel of adults who have had special training and experience.

They promoted educational progress--

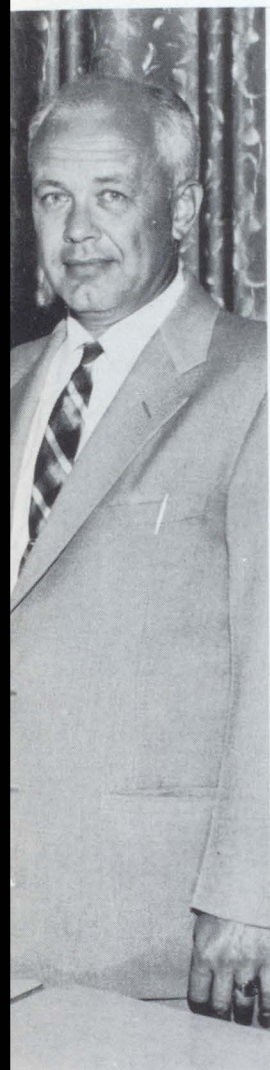

Seated: Richard A. Cooley, President; Thornton S. Kunz, Vice-President. Standing: Wilbur A. Norris, F. Bingham Fead, Mrs. Harlow Meno, Dr. Charles F. Kempf, and A. B. Carlisle.

The Board of Education, under the direction of its President, Mr. Richard A. Cooley, has continued to function as an invaluable part of the Port Huron Educational System. As problems have risen, the Board has met them with understanding, foresight, and perserverance.

School consolidation in the Port Huron-Marysville area has been of major concern this past year to the Board members. They have striven for a more complete and advanced curriculum in the Port Huron school system.

the superintendent and the board.

Mr. Howard D. Crull

Mr. Crull has been the Superintendent of the Port Huron Educational System for the past eighteen years. In co-operation with the Board of Education, he has worked consistently to improve school facilities, to solve the problem of consolidation of schools in the Blue Water area, and to gain benefits for our teaching staff, administrators, and the students.

Thanks to the constant effort of Mr. Crull, the school curriculum of Port Huron's Educational System has been one of the city's highlights in its progressive trend.

To the Senior Class

In September, 1957, six hundred shy and somewhat bewildered tenth graders crossed the threshold of Port Huron High School for the first time. You were those people. You are the first class never to have attended the "old high school." You came with mixed feelings. Some of you came to learn. Some of you came to have fun. Some came because your parents wanted you to come. All of you hoped for a high school diploma, even if you expected "Lady Luck" to provide it.

Now it is three years later. Your number has been decreased by about one hundred fifty. Congratulations to those who worked to the finish line.

Now you are being graduated. You have succeeded in your aims and aspirations. You alone know what you have gained, to what extent you have grown in stature, how much you gave of yourself to receive for yourself. So it will be in life beyond high school.

May you ever be happy and successful.

Florence C. Wiese
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 1960

Your school years have been the formative period which has helped you lay the foundation for your future career. This training will help you fulfill the future needs of your chosen vocation.

You have won the respect, confidence, and admiration of the school in many ways and have every right to be proud of the goal you have achieved. I wish you continued success and prosperity in the years ahead.

Colen J. Sommerville
Dean of Boys

Toward Our Goals.

Mr. Gerke, Mr. Feick, Miss Moore, and Miss Kean.

The counselors helped students immensely in arranging their high school educational programs to correspond with future college and career plans. In a friendly, interested manner they counseled each individual, assisting him in solving his scholastic and personal problems.

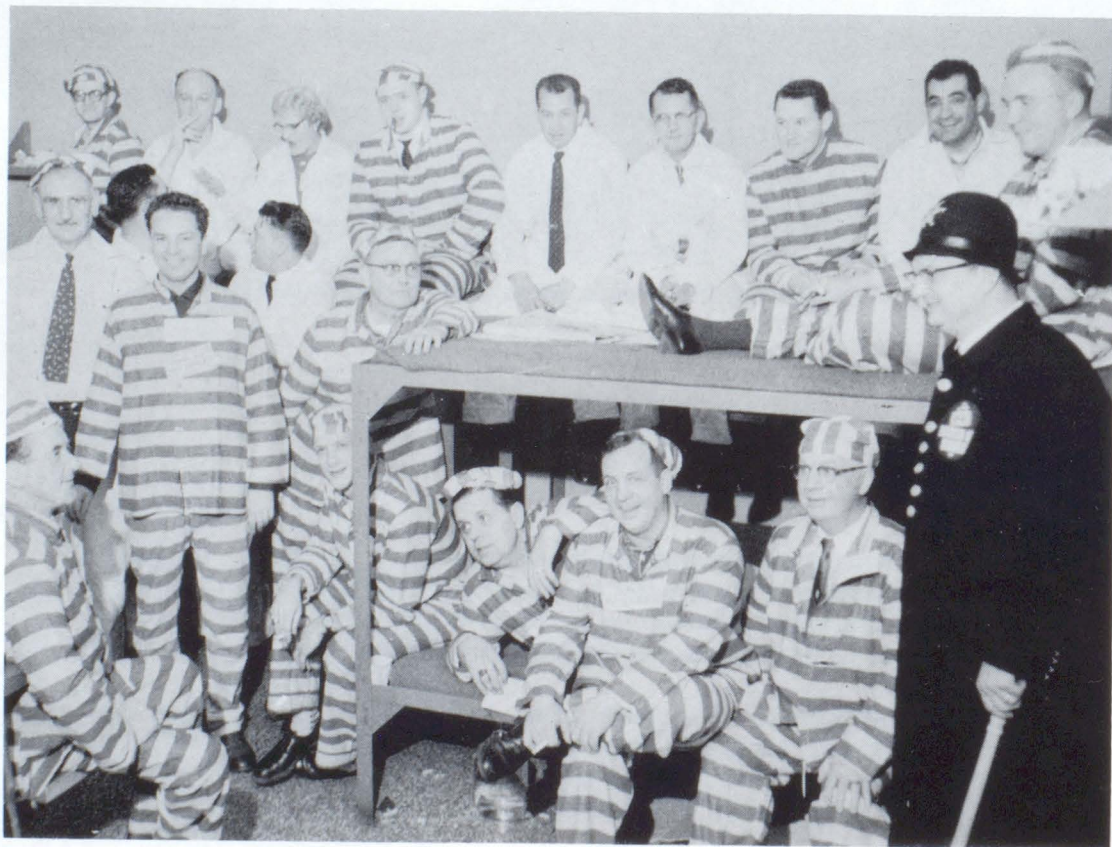

From the results of aptitude tests, an important feature of the high school guidance program, students were able to learn which vocational areas were best for them. Miss Kean, Miss Moore, Mr. Feick, and Mr. Gerke were always available to give sound advice.

P. H. H. S. said goodbye to its principal

At an assembly on January 15, the entire student body, the faculty, school administrators, and former high school teachers said a fond farewell to their principal, Mr. Tomlinson. Each department was represented by students who presented Mr. Tomlinson with gifts suggestive of the department. A wheel was used to show the relationship of the various departments to the faculty and administration.

Always active in civic affairs, Mr. Tomlinson participated in this year's March of Dimes Drive. Each year leading citizens of Port Huron were "arrested" and held for $100 bail which was donated to the March of Dimes. Mr. Tomlinson is pictured in the lower right corner.

And friend, Mr. Tomlinson

On January 15, 1960 the students and faculty said "au revoir" to their principal, Mr. Morton J. Tomlinson. Few men have done as much for our school system as Mr. Tomlinson during his nineteen and one-half years of dedicated service.

Mr. Tomlinson was not only a devoted principal and educator, but a true friend to the students and teachers. We were happy to learn that he has been enjoying himself and finding time to spend on his favorite pastimes.

Mr. Morton J. Tomlinson

Mr. Tomlinson met officially with the teachers for the last time at a faculty meeting, on Friday afternoon, January 22.

Mr. Colen J. Sommerville

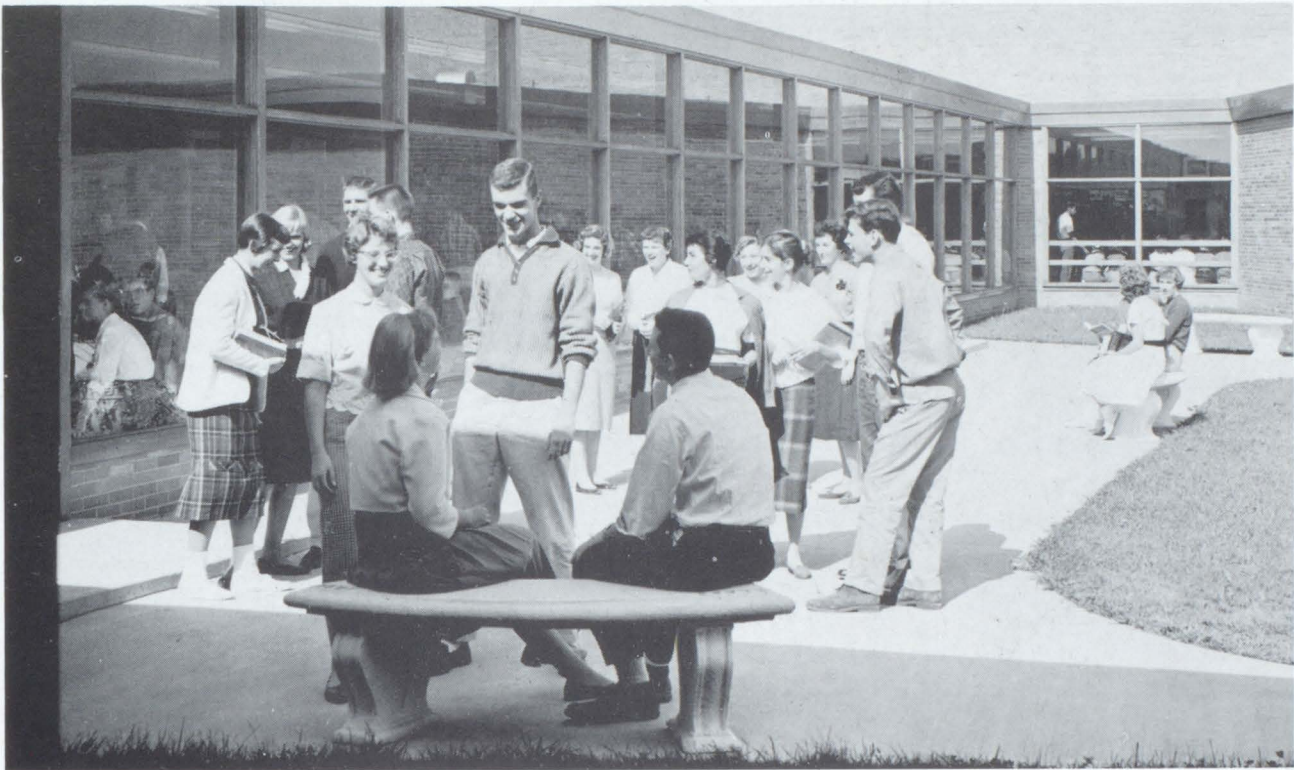

Port Huron High School students and faculty welcomed the new principal, Mr. Colen J. Sommerville, at the beginning of the second semester. Mr. Sommerville was new to the position, but not new to the school. He had previously been Dean of Boys here for three years and was well acquainted with both faculty and students.

Mr. Sommerville assumed many added responsibilities with the office -- coping with major disciplinary problems, holding numerous faculty meetings, and keeping abreast of student activities. His main responsibility was to see that our high school was run efficiently.

The administrators and students joined in wishing Mr. Sommerville success and happiness as Principal of Port Huron High School.

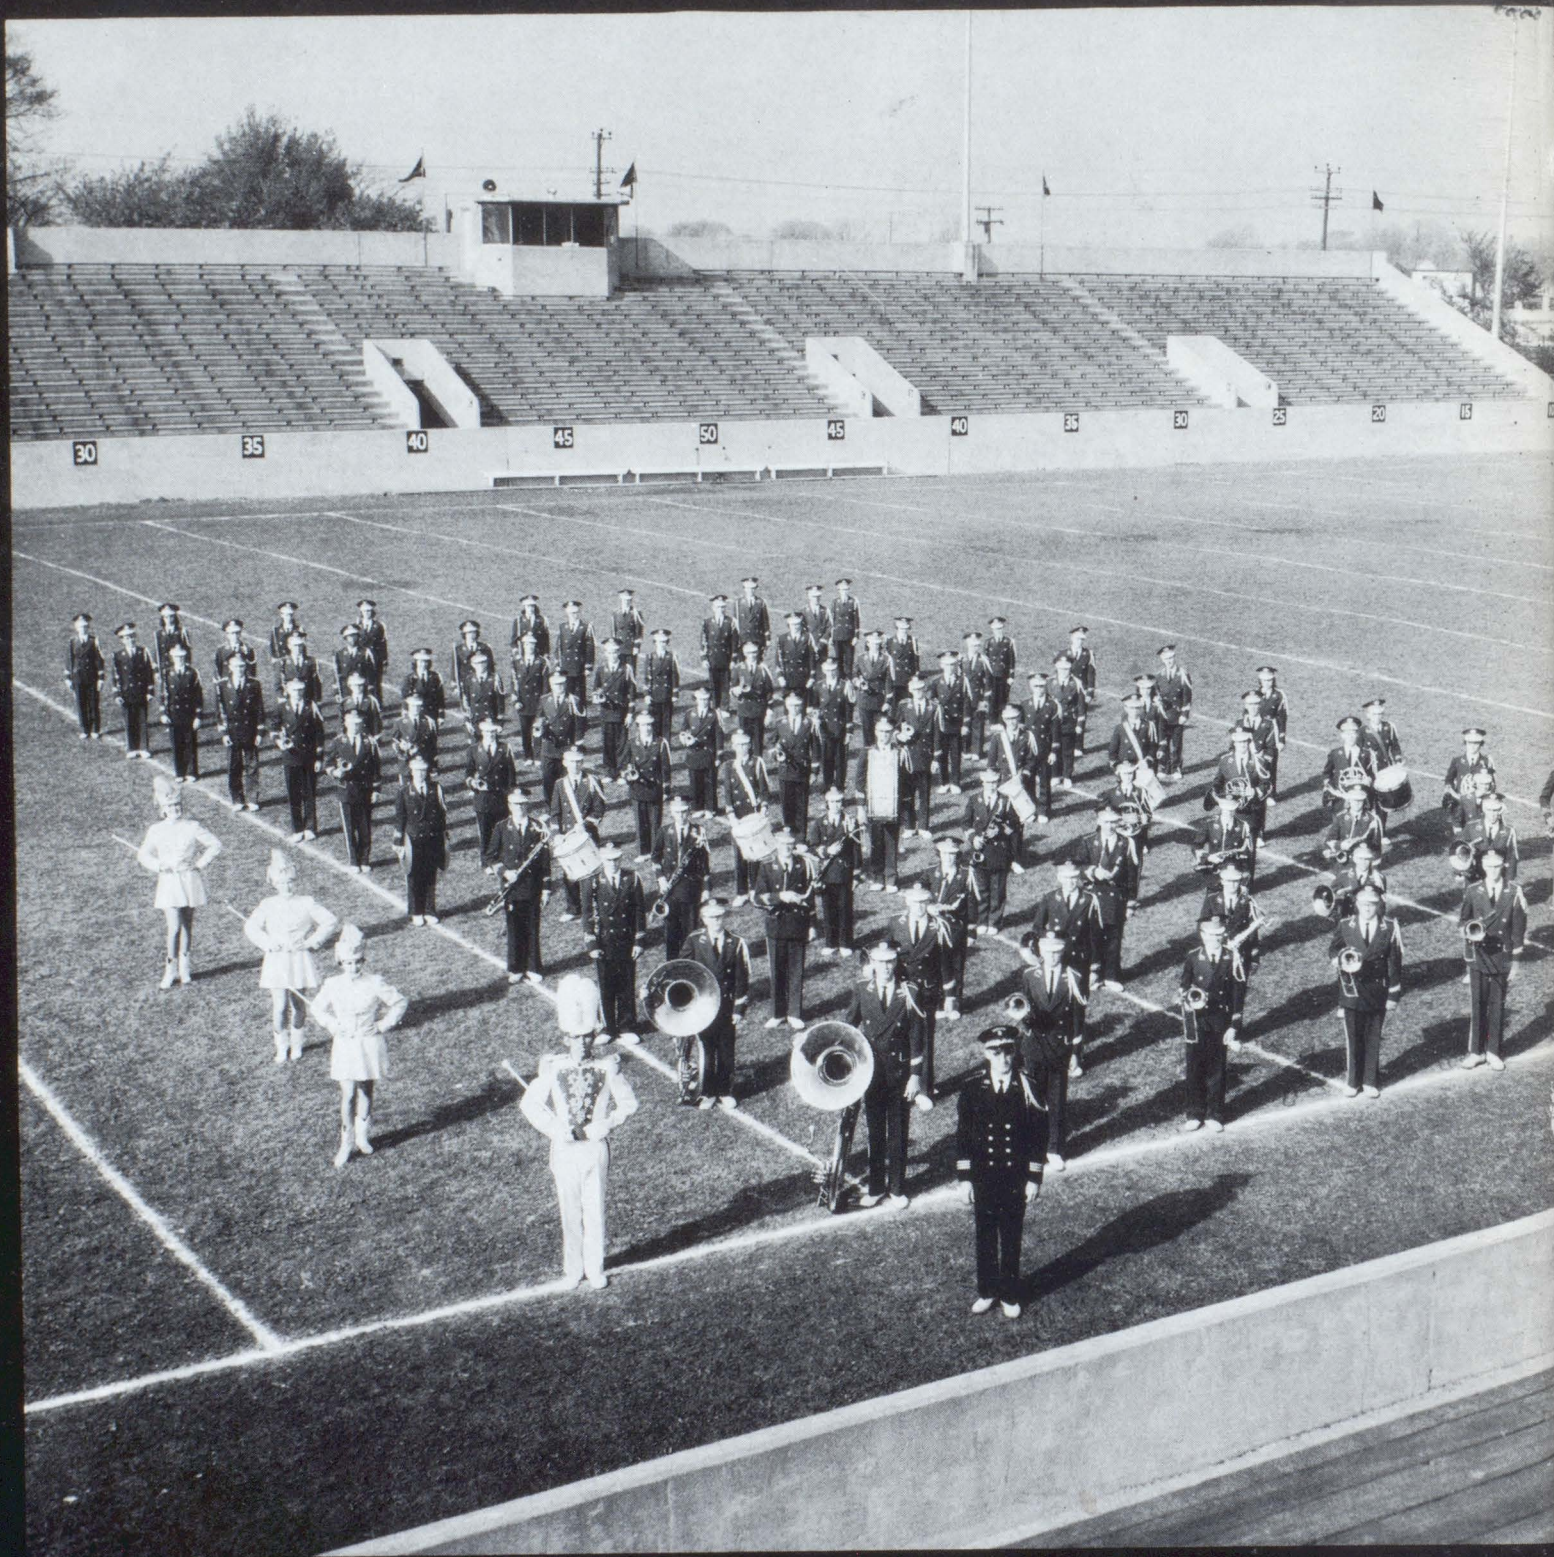

Welcomed a "new" principal.

Sunny, warm days found students outside in the courts, relaxing and talking over good times. The student body wholeheartedly transferred its loyalty to its new principal, Mr. Colen J. Sommerville.

Mr. Sommerville was welcomed heartily by the faculty members at a special tea given in his honor by the Assistant Principal, Miss Wiese.

Each school day started casually.

Karen Edie, Barbara Draper, Judith Fester, and Judith Martin separated as another school day began.

Joan Leffler, Arlene Lusko, and Mary Lou Edie enjoy a friendly get-together in the student lounge. Patricia Belanger, Nancy Wilcox, and Joanne Fuchshafer seriously reviewed for their next classes.

The last fifteen minutes of the lunch hour were spent chatting with friends or strolling leisurely in the cafeteria area.

Then, on to a full schedule of classes: Languages,

After reading Caesar, the second-year Latin students made famous the quotation, "Veni, vidi, fugi."

"Paul et Marie sont alles au theatre," read William Jacobs, as other students in Miss Winborn's first-year French class followed the lecture in their books.

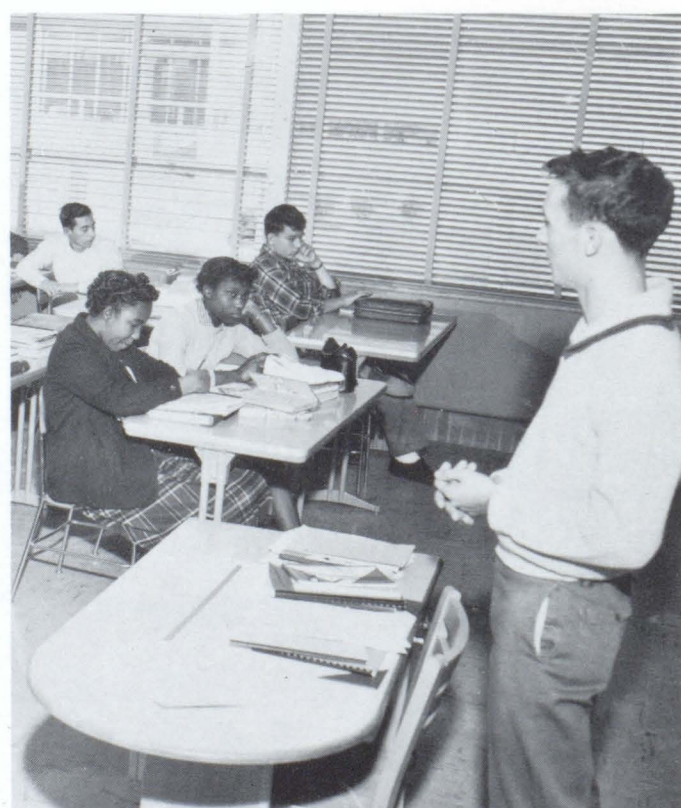

Mr. Curti received rousing response when he asked his second year Spanish "scholars," ¿Que es el burro?"

Patricia Mullen and John "Skip" Kelley eagerly read selections from Macbeth in Mrs. Jacobus' English literature class.

Senior composition students were given a final review of grammar.

David Johnson, in Mrs. Clemons' sophomore English class, gave his first impromptu speech on "Introductions."

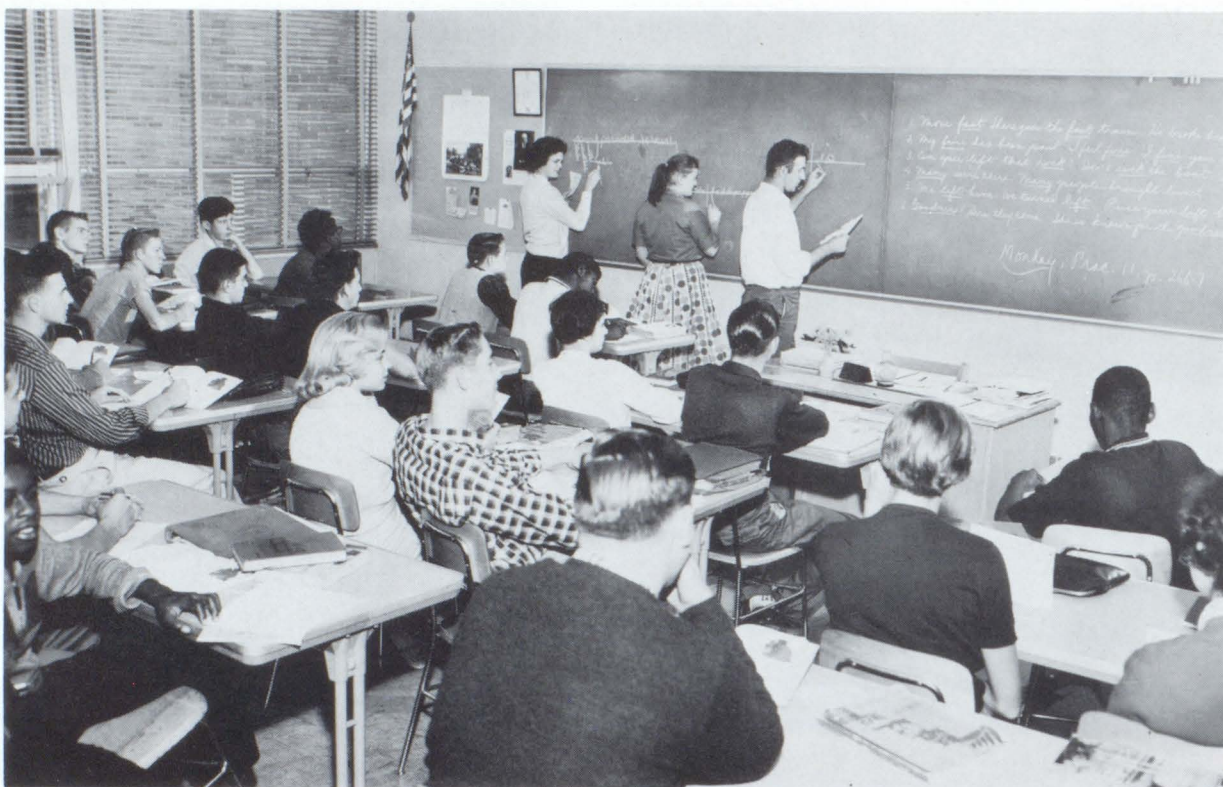

Which helped us everyday

Mr. Sims discussed the American literature test before the students began writing.

Frederick Green, Robert Green, Barbara Parrott, and Sandra Hart served as panel members who led the class discussion on a Faulkner short story.

Patricia Warden, Darlene Brown, and Myles Marlett made the diagramming of difficult sentences seem easy for a sophomore English class.

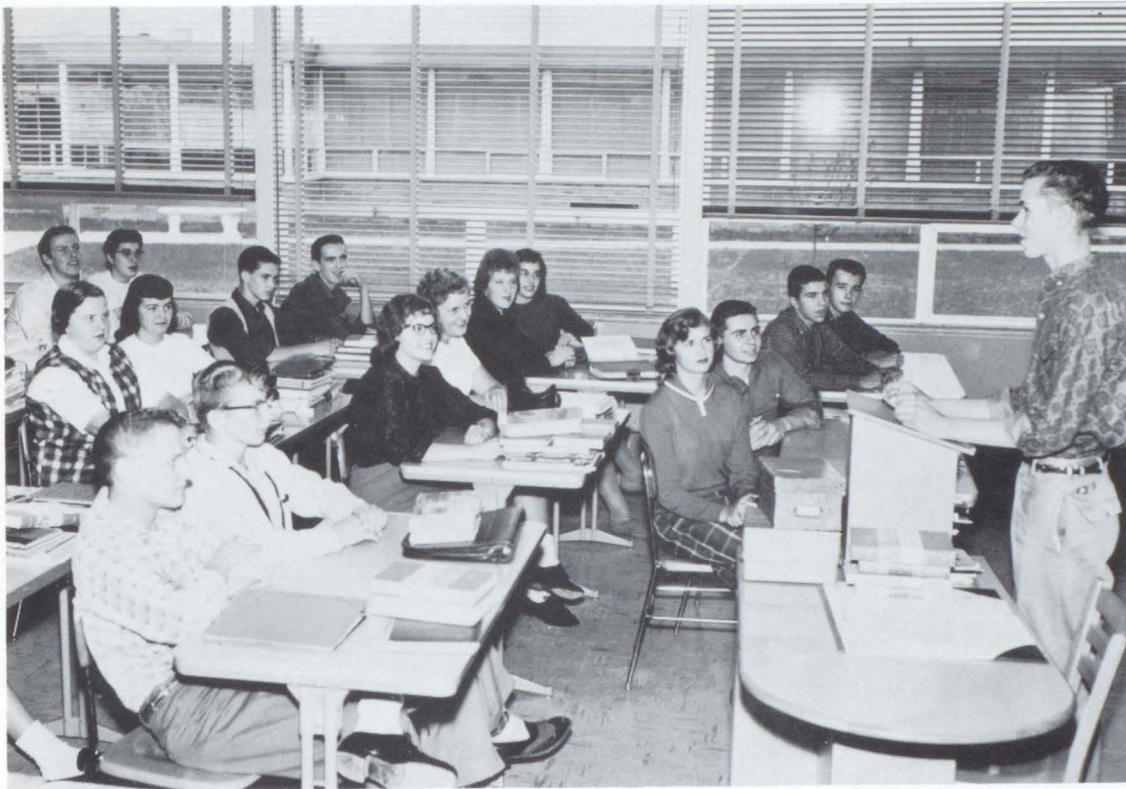

Mr. Dickinson gave individual help, as well as class explanation, to his senior English composition students.

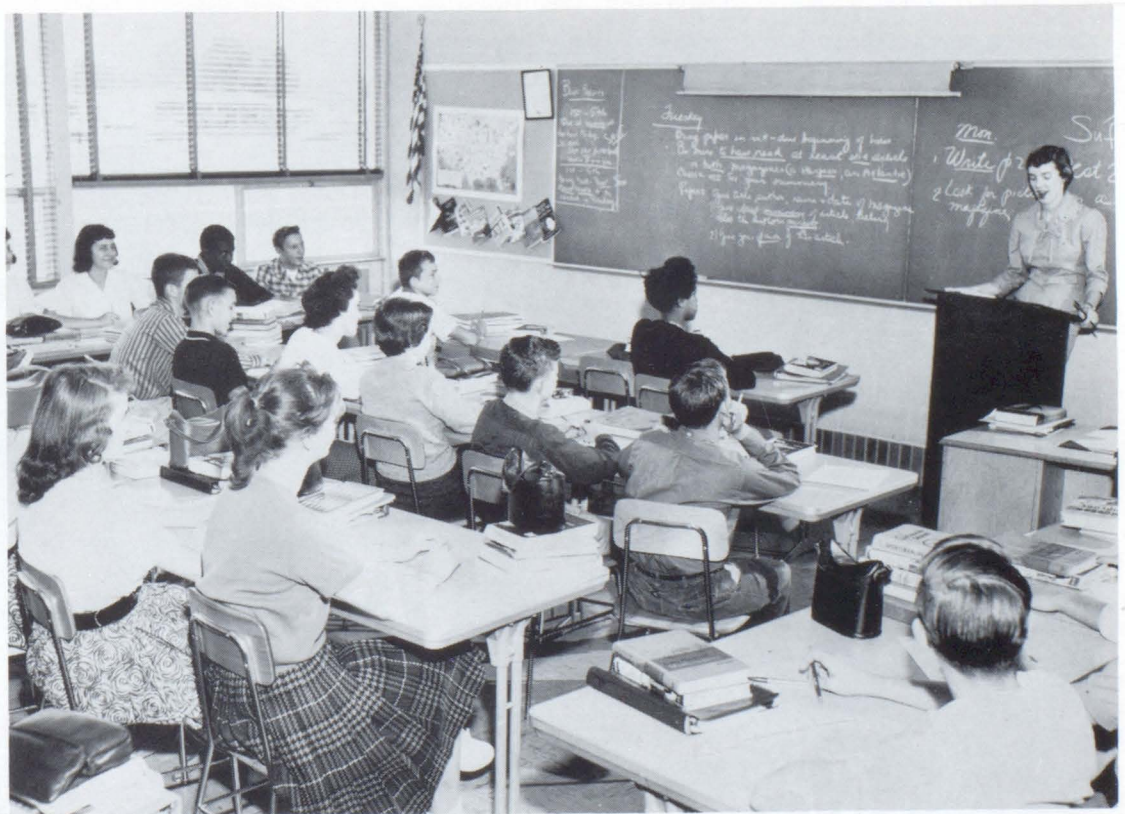

After a careful explanation of the parts of speech, Mr. Lake's sophomore English class was assigned written exercises to test their knowledge.

the adult world of communication

All eyes were on Richard King as he gave a speech on his favorite topic in Mr. Dickinson's speech class.

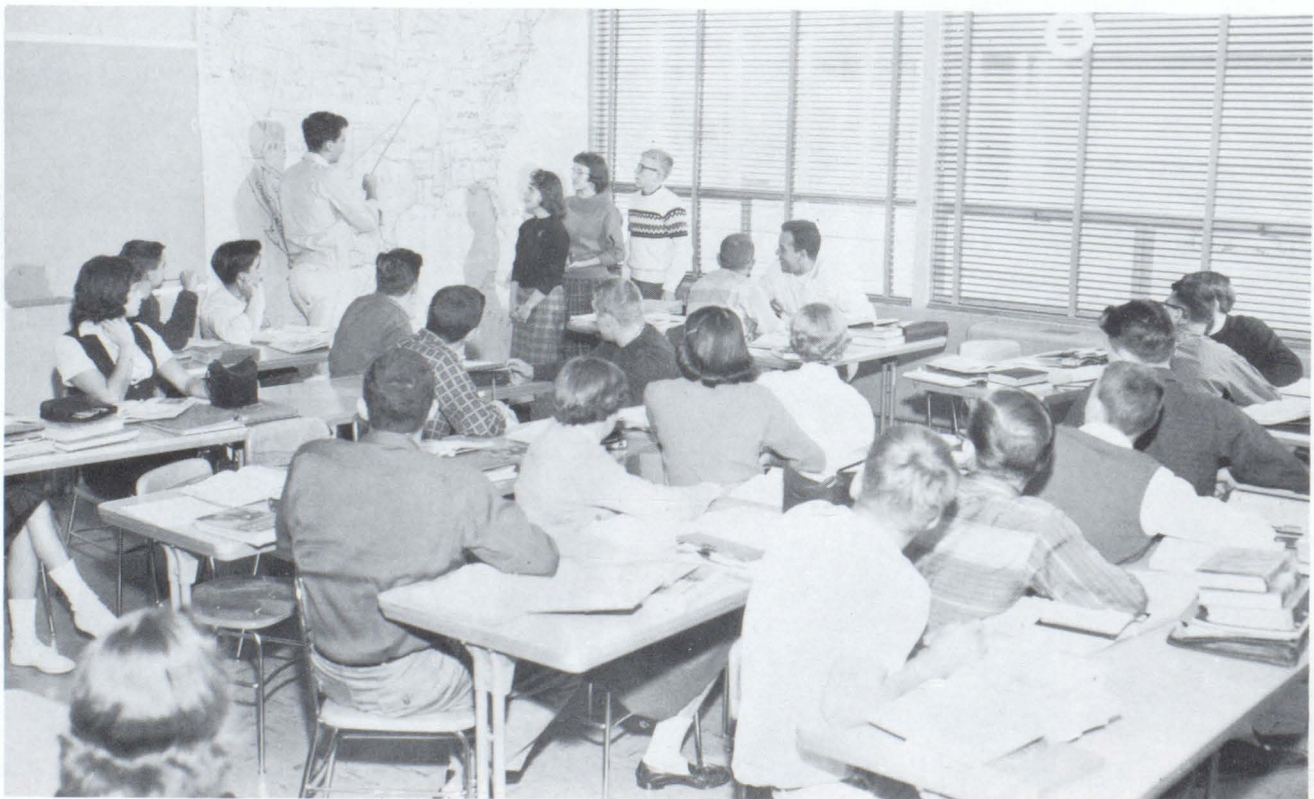

Miss Austin explained to her sophomore English class that, "A preposition is something you should not end a sentence 'with'."

Government, sociology, and economics,

Mr. Robert Reitz, from the Social Security office, explained to Miss Muhlitner's economics class the Social Security program and its benefits.

Dale Weaver quizzed Norma Bentsen, Patricia O'Rourke, and John Barcume on state capitals as a review for a geography test.

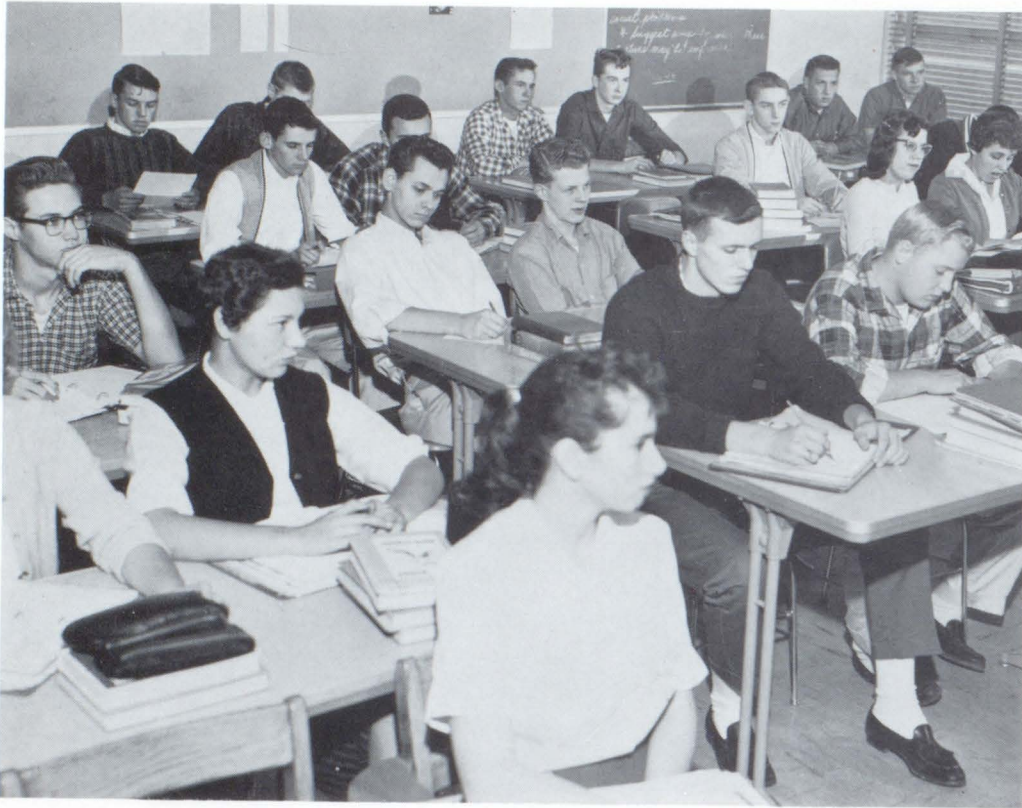

which are basic for all good citizens;

Eric "Jan" Cwikowski reviewed state taxation for Mrs. Patterson's class in preparation for Senior Government Day.

Walter Mitchell, Beth Dowell, and John Dohn brought posted articles to the attention of their fellow students in Mr. Nault's American history class.

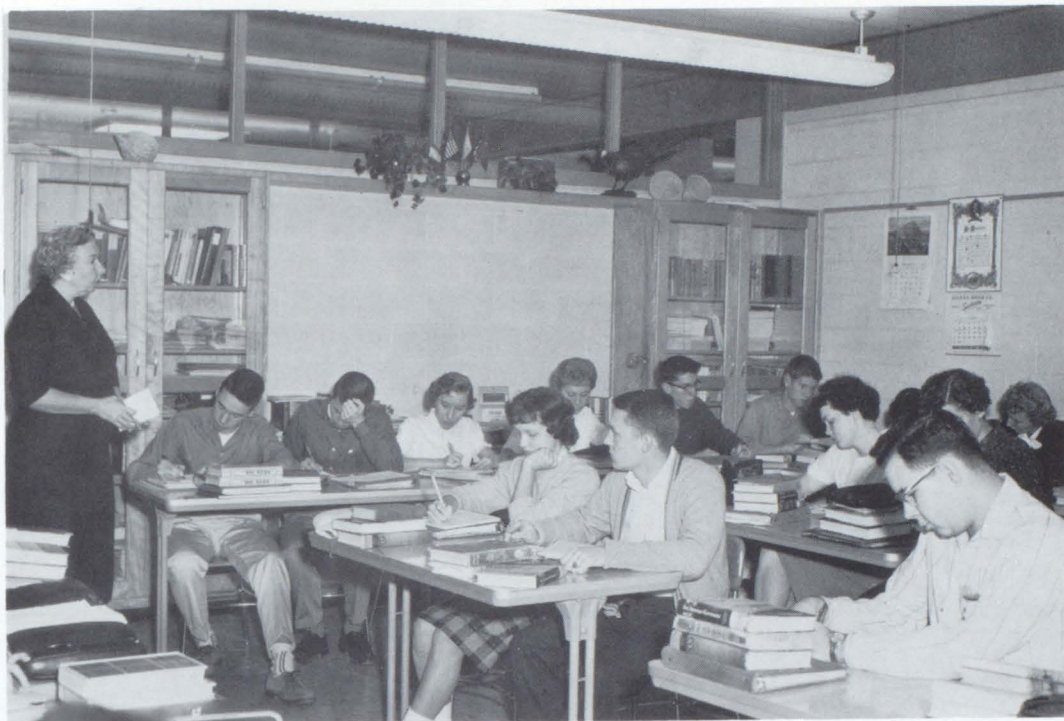

The sociology class paid close attention to Miss Warren as she told of Chicago's juvenile delinquency problems.

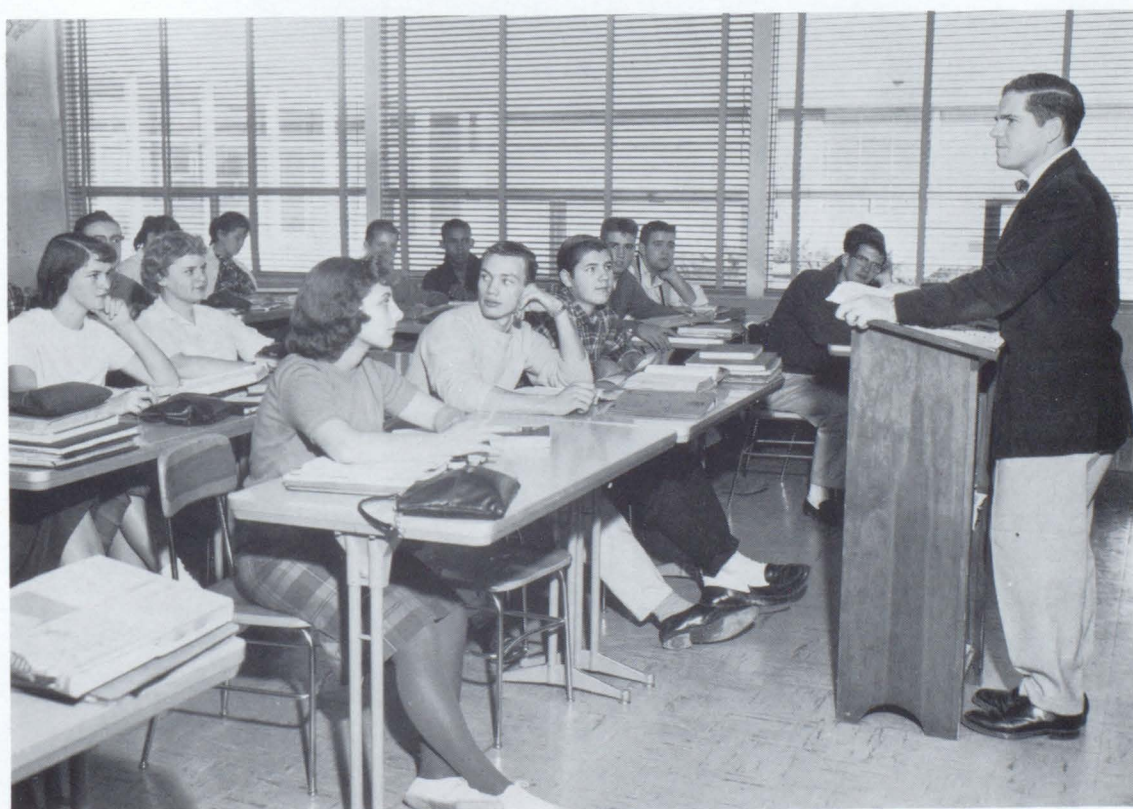

Constance Sterling and George Contos found their audience most attentive when they told of the "Warring Spartans" of early Greek civilization.

acquainted us with our world.

Miss Muhlitner's government class students were given a quiz to determine how well they had paid attention to the daily lecture, which was on Michigan's serious financial condition.

Mr. Hill's American history class listened carefully as he talked about the Battle of Bunker Hill.

Science required intensive study;

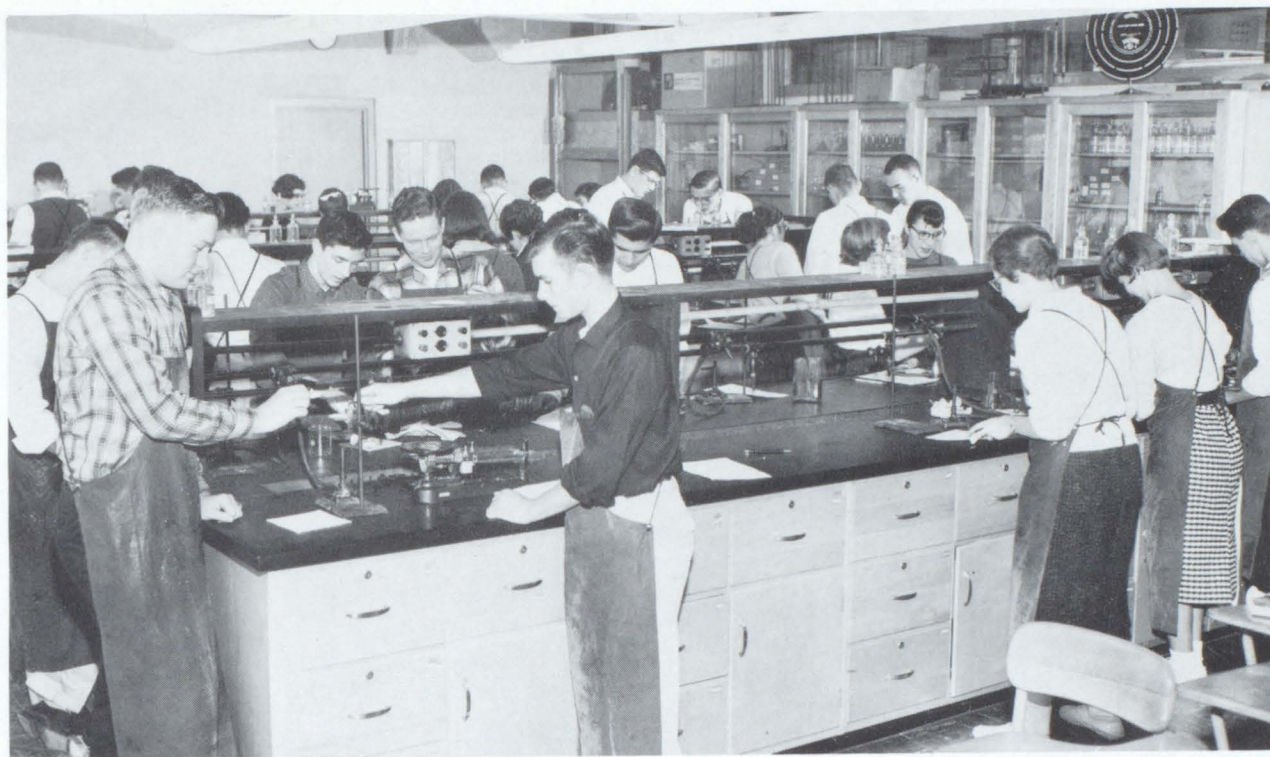

David Spore, David Zarling, Ronald Pallett, and Myra Wood worked an experiment in Mr. Bond's physics class to determine the elastic modulus of a spring.

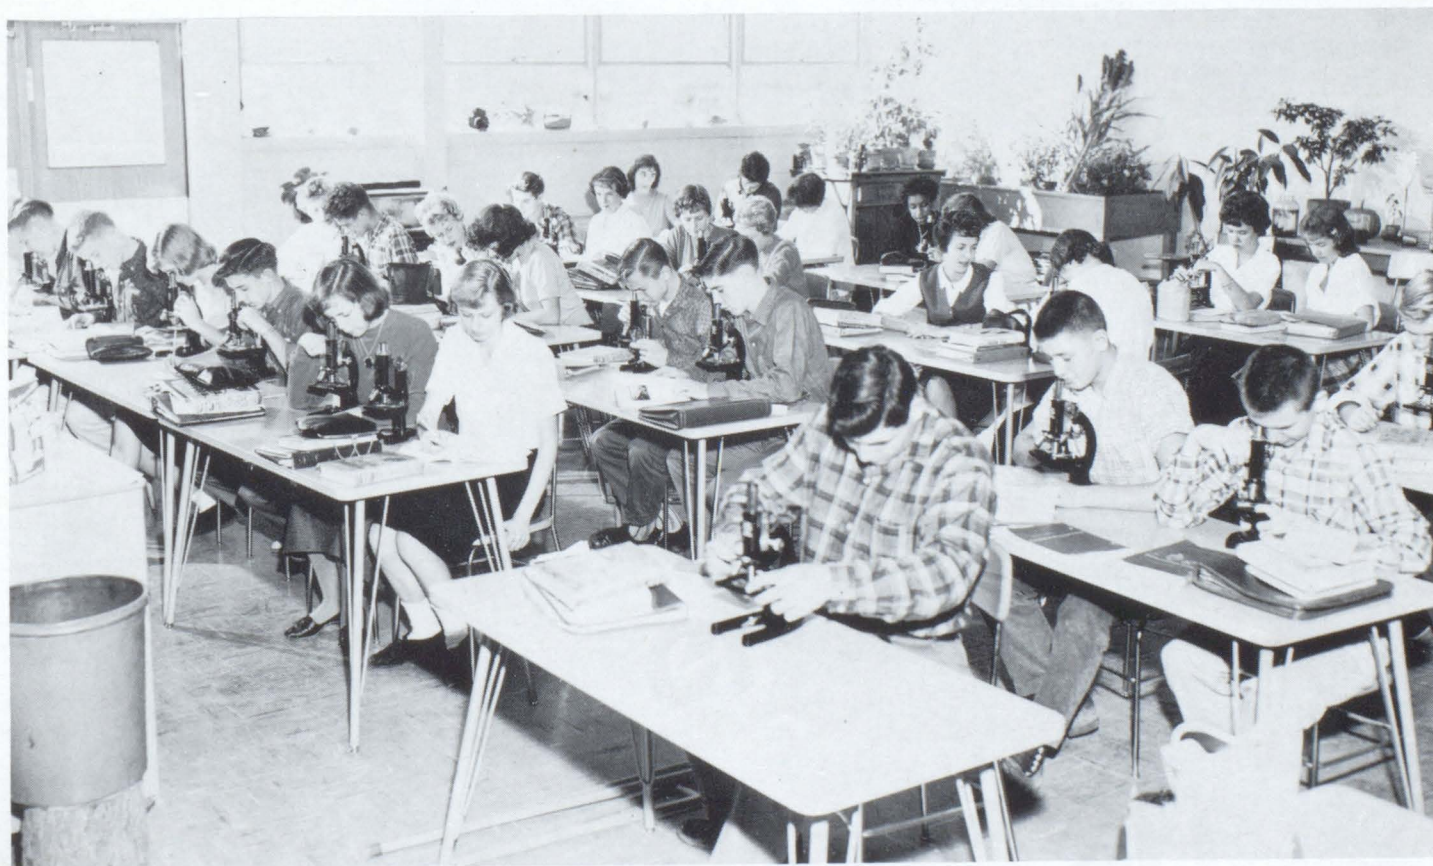

David Johnson, Charles Bates, Sharon Plotzke, and Joanne Collingwood showed Mr. Bundy's general science class how to use a vacuum pump.

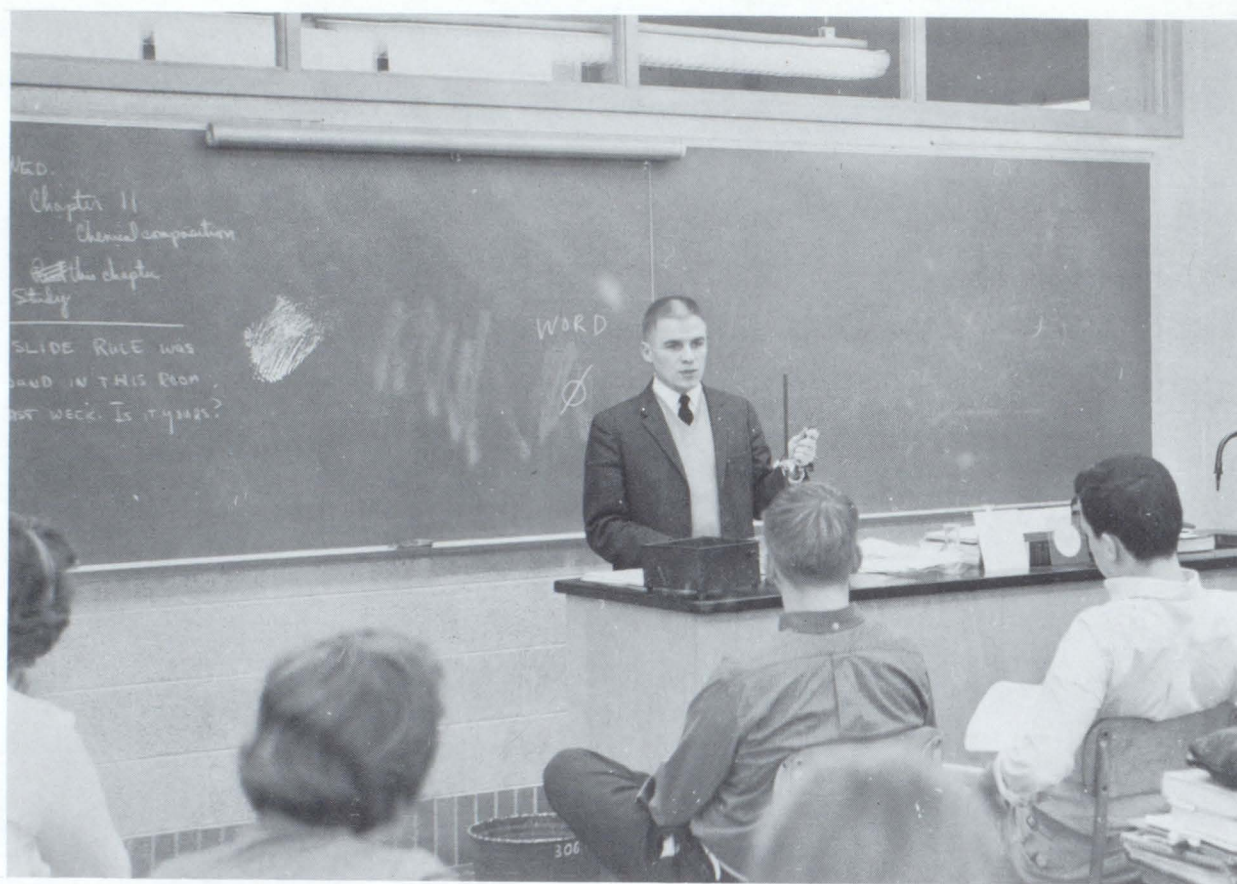

but in the space age,

Mr. Rudd's class of prospective scientists analyzed an unknown solution.

Mr. Phillips' biology class peered with wonder at the amazing world opened up to them through the microscope.

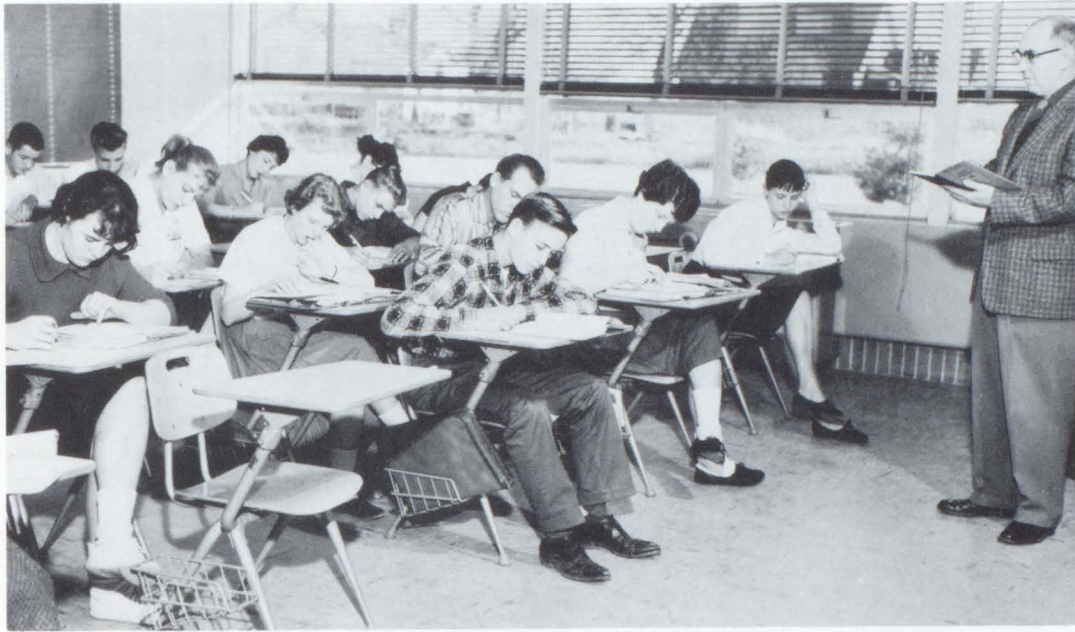

Mr. Bundy demonstrated one of the chemical reactions described in the chapter on molecular composition.

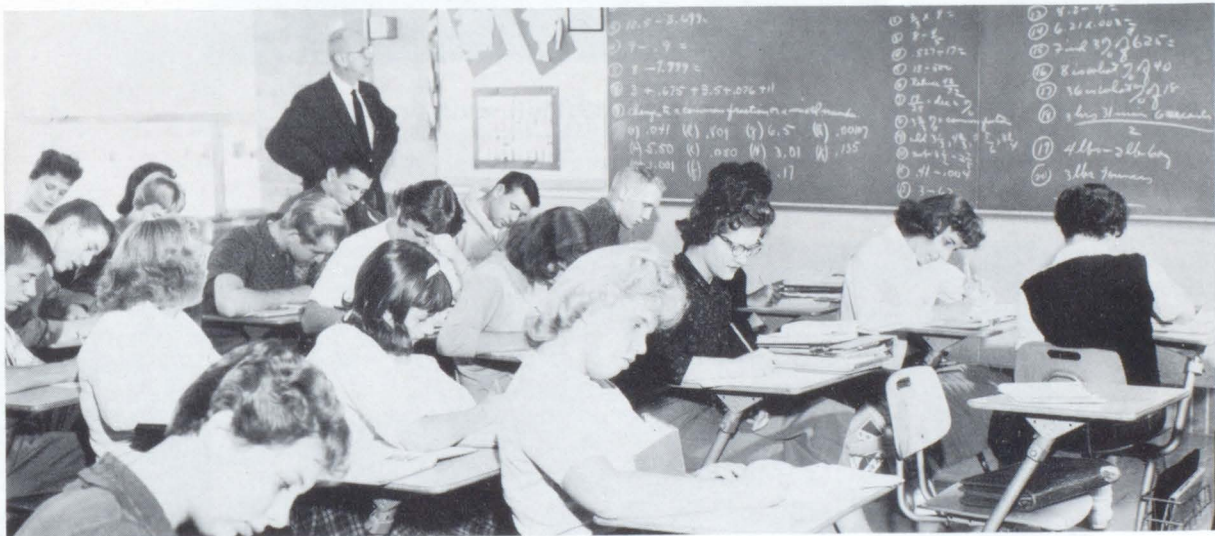

Darlene Brown, David Godman, Ronald Willis, and Walter Hooper studied the venation of leaves in Mr. Gouker's biology class.

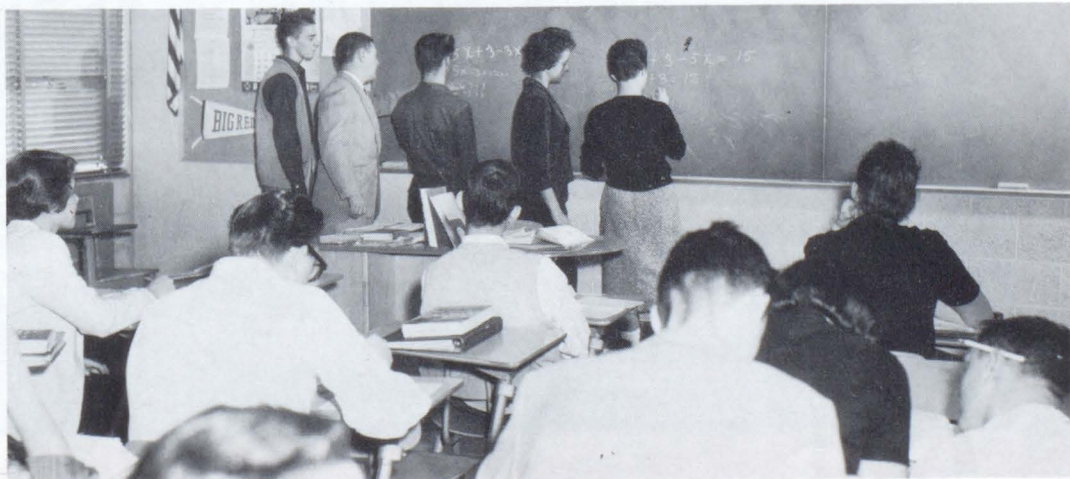

Hand in hand with science

The second-hour consumers mathematics class finished assignments as Mr. Aurand took roll.

The consumers mathematics students worked conscientiously under the supervision of Mr. Anderle.

came mathematics,

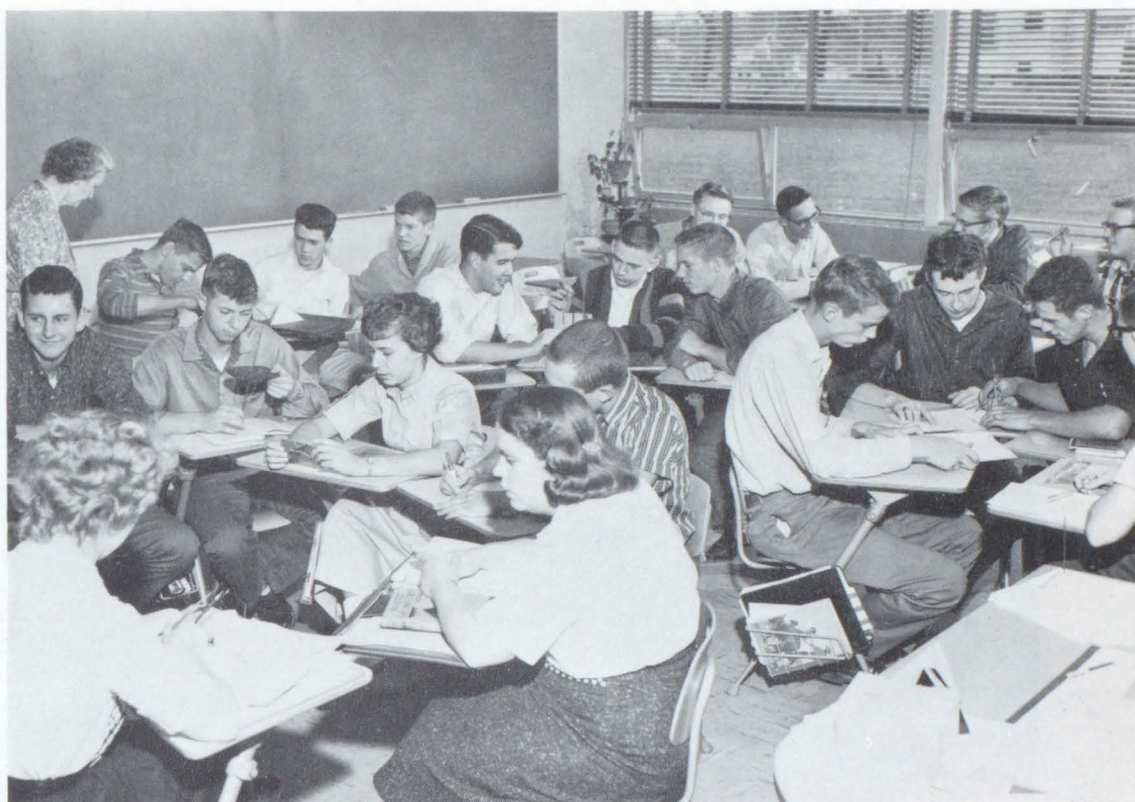

Beginning students worked diligently to complete difficult math problems.

Miss Meehan explained directions for the advanced algebra six-weeks' test to Barbara Goodwin.

fitting us for the future.

The students in Miss Meehan's solid geometry class formed groups to discuss the day's assignment.

Sharon McConnell explained the construction of a tetrahedron to Miss Meehan's 4B solid geometry class.

Commercial classes

Advanced shorthand students tried to reach their goal of writing 100 words per minute on a five - minute timing as Miss Ruthe dictated.

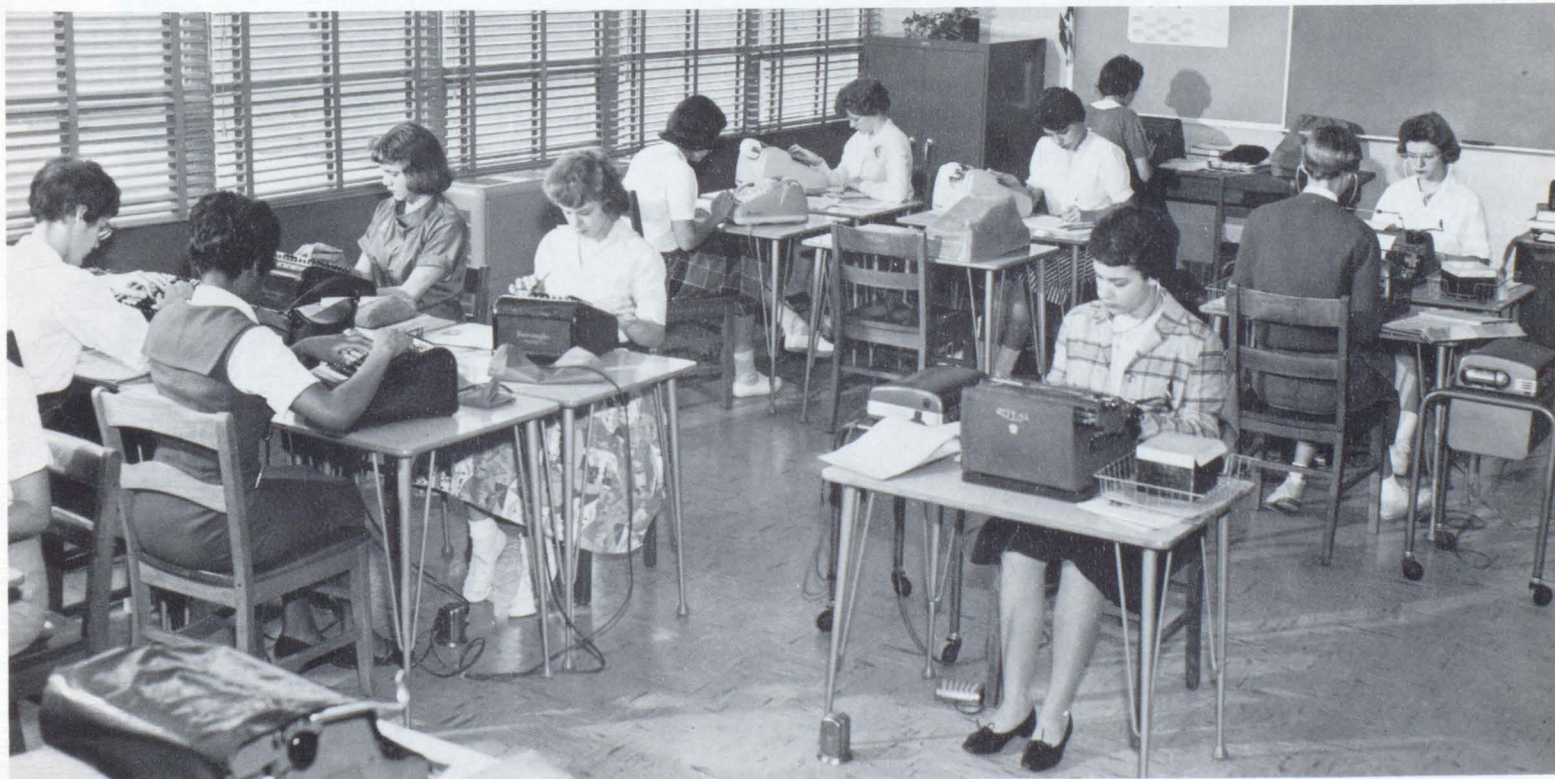

Accuracy and speed are important qualities of a good typist. Mrs. Rantanen's advanced typing students took five-minute timings to test their typing ability.

prepared us for the business world.

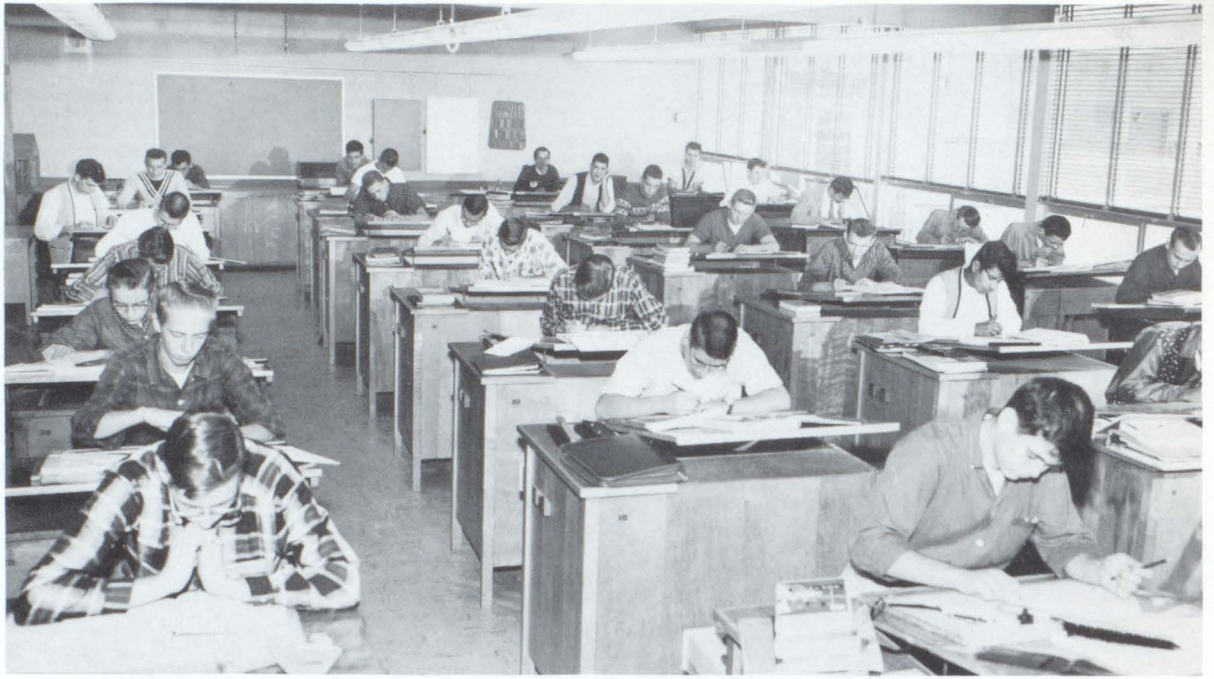

Mr. Moorehead's bookkeeping students worked diligently for neat and accurate records. Knowing the fundamentals of bookkeeping is helpful to a student for his personal use as well as in the office.

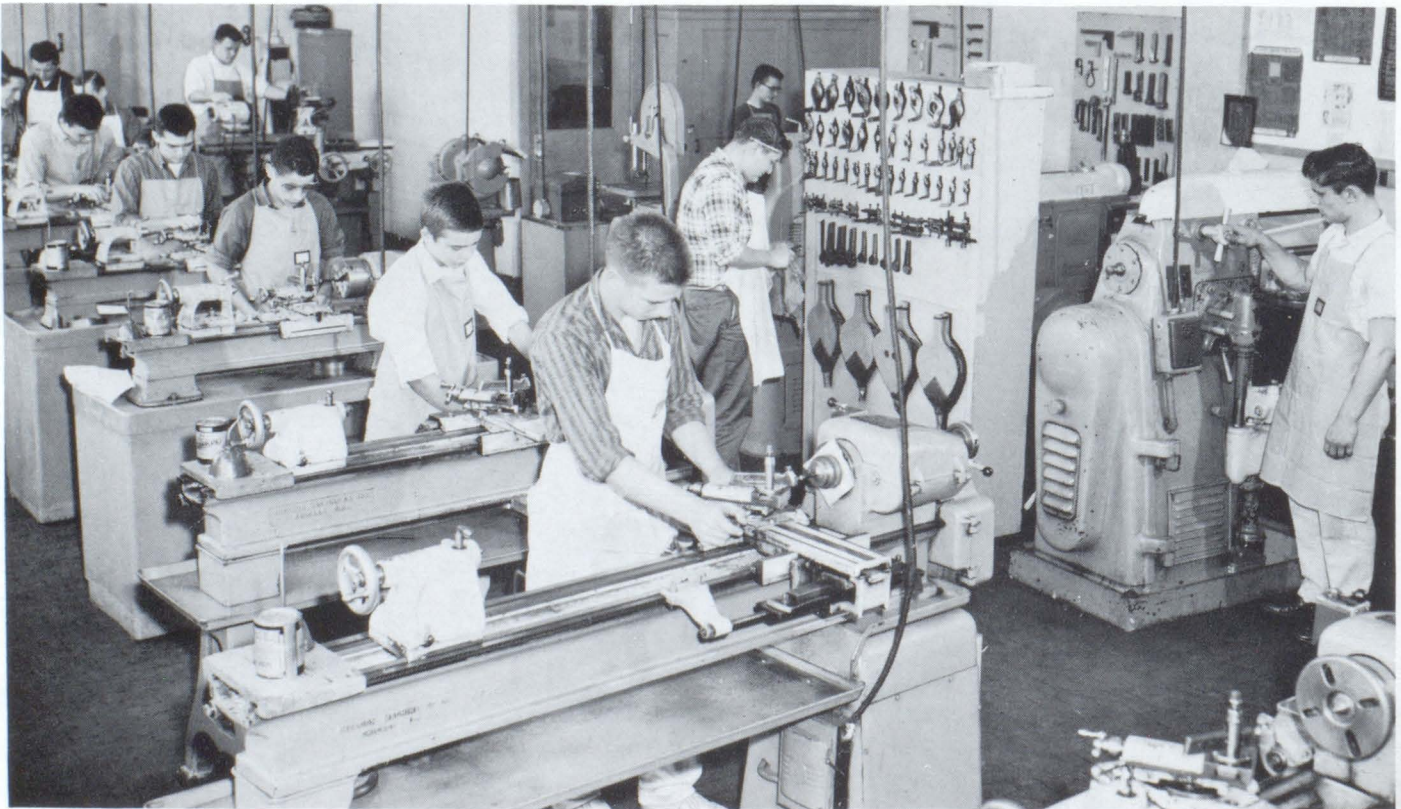

For success in today's business world, a student's familiarity with various office machines is a definite asset. The office machines course, taught by Mrs. Lindsay, proved a popular choice of the business education students this year.

Industrial arts trained hands

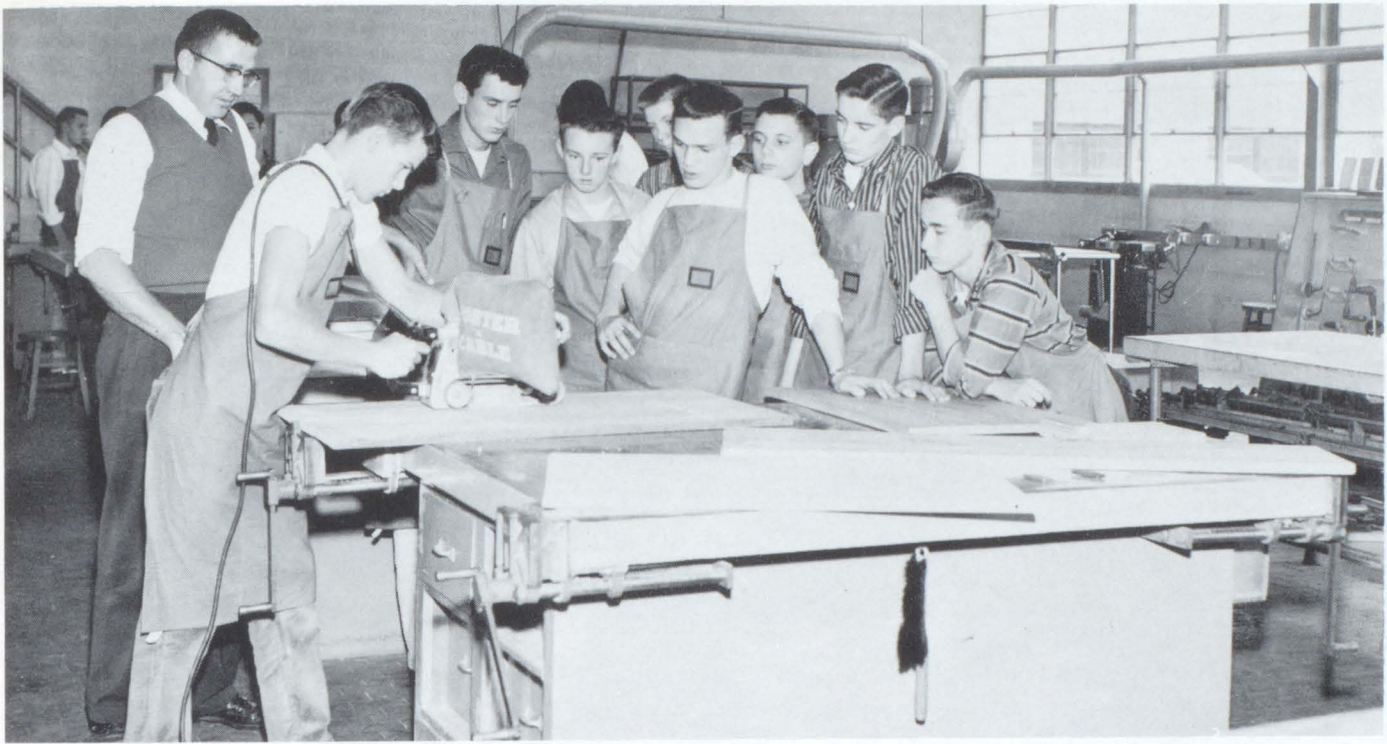

Mr. Shelton's mechanical drawing class completed the weekly assignment of three plates.

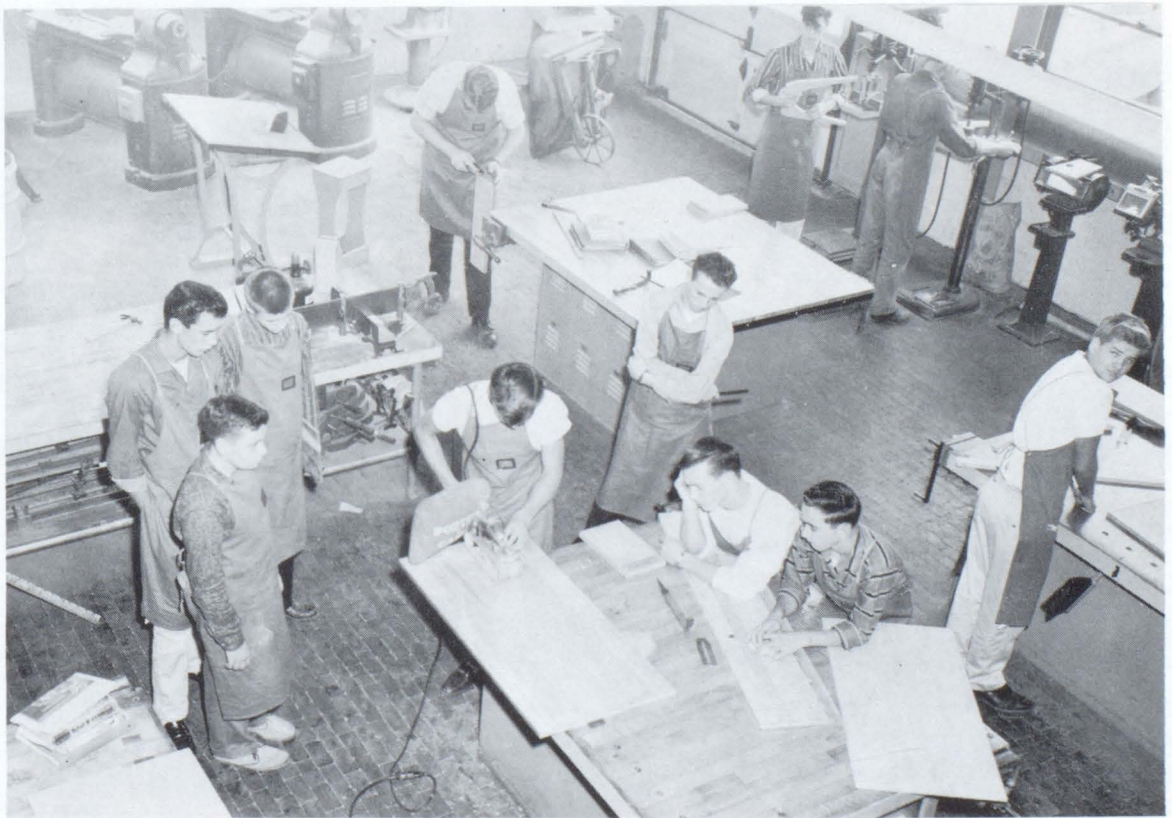

The students in machine shop gained valuable experience in the operation of machines which are used extensively in industry.

for many crafts.

Mr. Runnalls supervised, while Gerald O'Connor operated the power sander to smooth the coffee table.

The boys in woodshop learned how to make many attractive pieces of furniture.

Creative talents received encouragement.

Charles Moore prepared a tray for etching in Miss Kuhlenkamp's crafts class as other members looked on.

Mrs. Winslow's first - year art class learned the fundamentals of creative art.

Artistic Christmas cards were made by the students of the advanced art class. They made the many attractive posters which appeared in the halls from time to time throughout the year.

The helpful domestic sciences were not forgotten,

In Mrs. Alexander's foods classes, the girls gained valuable experience in the art of gracious entertaining. Janice Kukulka served to Sandra McDonald, Barbara Friley, Cassine Hall, Brenda Kaufman, Lois Dutton, Mary Matthews, Marilyn Lomasney, Mary Shaw, Patricia McLeod, Mary Glombowski, Diane Collins, Janet Wagner, Sharon Krampien, Wanda Ostrander, Rosemary Cline, Patricia McEachen, Sally Gossman, and Christine Chamberlin.

The girls in Miss Moore's clothing classes learned the basic methods of correct dressmaking. Many of the girls made attractive blouses, skirts, and jumpers for school wear.

Gerald Rowbotham explained to Miss Melville's home and family living class the pros and cons of steady dating.

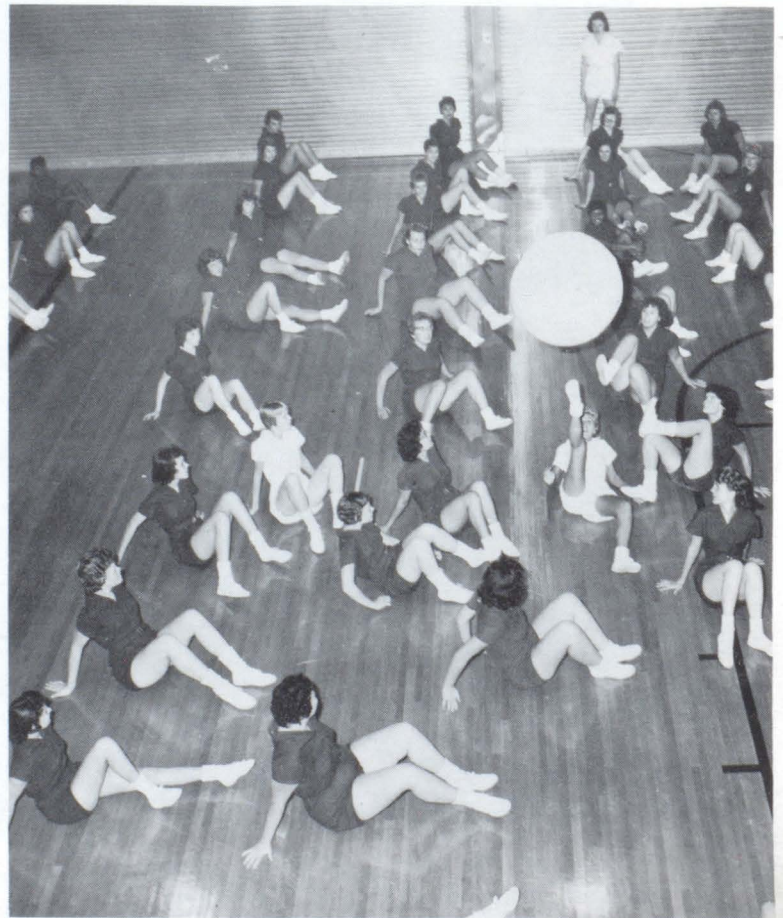

nor was the health of students.

Under the instructor's direction, the boys in this tenth grade gym class performed many an interesting feat.

With a hop, skip, and a jump, girls in Miss Teachout's gym class whirled away with their ropes.

A game of cageball in the tenth grade girls' gym classes did wonders to attract everyone's attention and enthusiasm.

Driver education students enjoyed Training.

Mr. Lighter, Driver Education instructor, commented to Frederick Melms, who couldn't find the prop of the Ford Falcon, "O.K. Melmsie, stand there and hold it." Rebecca MacDonald, Judith London, and Terry Oakley enjoyed the joke because it wasn't on them.

Mr. Lighter said to Judith London, "What do you mean, it's impossible?"

Preperation for all this took place in the study hall,

Students were already busy by the time the roll takers came to their tables in study hall.

While Marlene Cole and Janice Cole double checked the roll for study hall, Miss MacLaren looked through the library slips.

Used to good advantage by each student was his daily one-hour study hall period.

and, of course, the library.

The essence of concentration is apparent in the library before and after school, at noon, and during the study hall periods.

Miss Jessop and Jeannette Lippert looked through a book catalogue to recheck the list of books that were purchased this year.

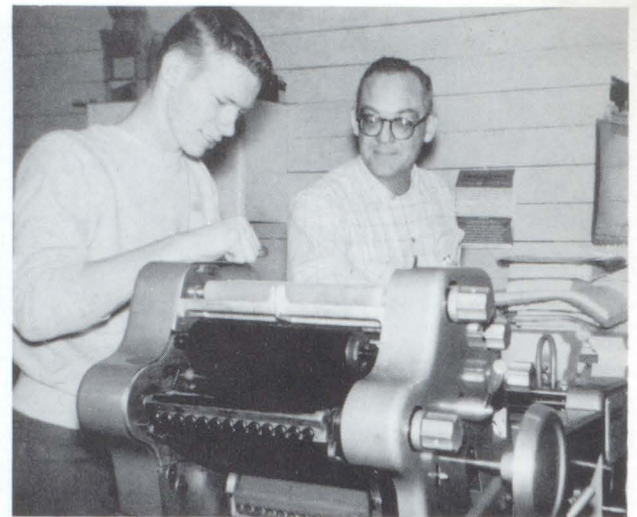

Nancy Streeter, Lois Dutton, and Michael Innes collected material that would be helpful in completing assignments.

Many students worked-

Sally Menerey was ready with a cheerful greeting whenever the door opened at French's Bakery.

Mr. Brahany, of Brahany Printing, helped Ronald Pallett run the printing machine.

Mr. Sloan, of the A & P Market, gave instructions to Leland Brown and Raymond Carrier on the proper handling of products.

Correspondence of the Webb Coal Company was handled by Marie Burns. Mr. McGillis found Marie almost indispensable in keeping accounts and filing bills.

Margaret Lang neatly arranged the attractive dolls at Woolworth's, with the approval of Mr. Hall.

"Thirty-five cents, please," said Sylvette Chreiki, as she collected lunch money in the Port Huron High School cafeteria.

as well as attended school-- Co-op.

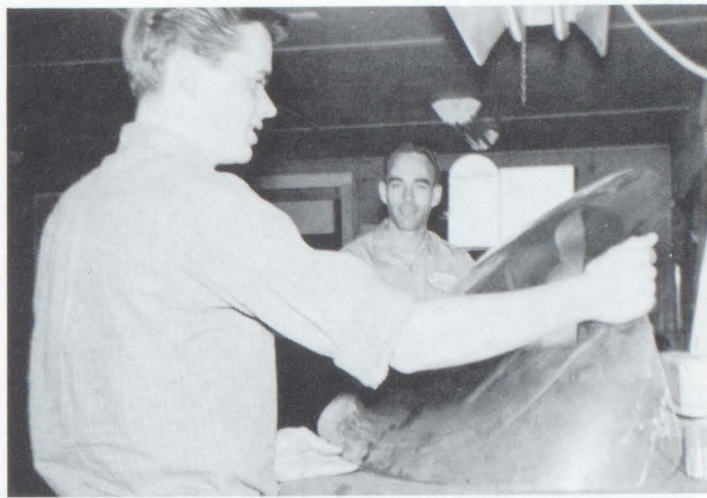

In the Port Huron High School office, Barbara Gates and Janet Thorley cheerfully accepted daily telephone calls. Mrs. Forbes, of the office staff, worked with the girls.

Mrs. Weise and Betheen Lanfear admired one of Arden's beautiful sweaters.

Mr. Sickelsteel, of the W.H.L.S. Radio Station, told Betty Jo Sanderson the importance of handling advertisement calls for the radio.

One of the many interesting jobs that Walter McCabe was required to do at Suburban Auto Glass was to cut a curved windshield. Mr. Campbell praised the results.

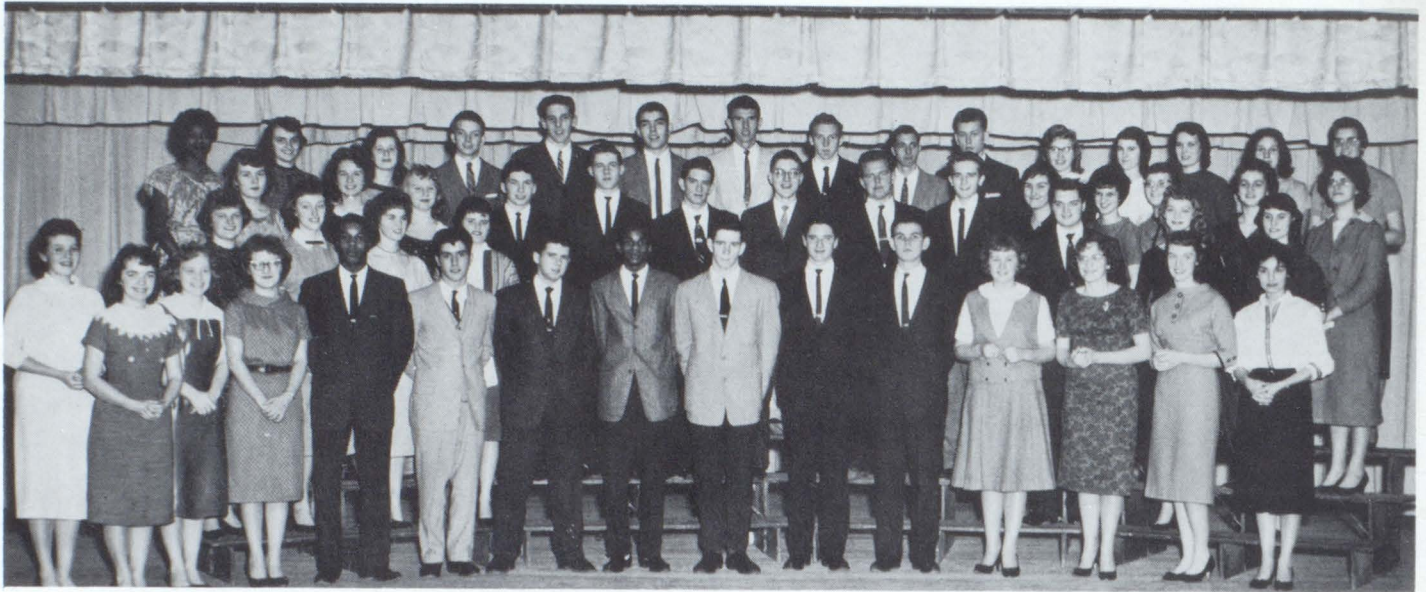

Herb Falk bought his school supplies from Sandra Kotter, who worked in the Port Huron High School bookstore.

Mr. Loewenthal, of Winkelman's, explained to Donna Fogle the procedure of filling out a receipt.

Homecoming: Floats + Parade +

"Number Wonderful" - The Sophomore Float!

The winner of the day was the "car" of the past.

All couldn't be winners, but there were no losers. Tied for second place were the Senior float (left) and the Junior float (right).

Perfect weather, beautiful queens, prize-winning floats, and gaily decorated cars set the atmosphere for the homecoming festival.

A pep rally put everyone in a festive mood which continued throughout the day. A parade in the afternoon gave the downtown crowd an opportunity to get into the homecoming spirit.

Queen + Spirit + Team = Victory

Reigning over the homecoming dance were Queen Susan Boerre and her court: Karen Shurkey, Frances Culp, Gloria Thompson, Rebecca Peterson, and Sally Smith.

Later that evening, Queen Susan Boerre, who was crowned in an impressive half - time ceremony, was one of the many who watched the Big Reds "Scatter the Maples," 25 to 19. Climaxing the day was the Homecoming dance, "Autumn Pageant," where the queen and her court reigned victoriously.

A thrilling moment for the queen--Susan Boerre was presented with her crown and royal robe by the Student Council President, Shirley "Chip" Bankson.

Seniors learned about government.

As hosts, David Hoag and Linda Lucas, juniors, cordially greeted two of the resource people: Mr. Arthur Schell, City Treasurer, and Mr. Gerald Bradley, Port Huron Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

More than 1,000 high school seniors from eight high schools throughout St. Clair County and over ninety resource people met at the Woodrow Wilson School November 6, for the ninth annual Senior Government Day.

Student chairmen for the day's program were Diane Langolf and Robert Alldredge from Port Huron High School.

The morning meeting, in which everyone participated, began at 9:15 with a few short speeches, followed by a question - and - answer period directed by Mr. Taylor. The afternoon was spent in sectional discussion groups. Each dealt with a certain phase of government under the supervision of a student chairman and a recorder.

In the discussion group, Taxation and Finance A, seniors were informed of the plans proposed to solve Michigan's financial crisis. The resource people were Mr. Arthur Schell, City Treasurer; Mr. Gerald Bradley, Assistant Superintendent of Schools; Mr. Roy Richards, Secretary of the Board of Auditors; the Honorable Otis M. Smith, Auditor General; Mr. Howard Clyne, Chairman of County Board of Supervisors; and Bonita Bukowski, student recorder for the group.

"Our Town"

THIRD ROW: Barbara Wright, Linda Heering, Nancy Lowrie, Joanne Kalish, Jeannette Lippert, Shirley Hyde, Thomas Morrison, Daniel Yakes, Shirley (Chip) Bankson, Gary Laughlin, Frederick Huebner, John Barcume, Raymond Somogy, Kenneth Konop, and Fred Pelton. TOP ROW: Walter Klaas, Lloyd DeLacy, Joan Hill, Janet Jonseck, Marilyn Klaas, Nancy Streeter, Bonnie McNeil, Kay Kimball, Sharon McConnell, Leo Keltz, and Edward Harvey.

"Emily, I-ah, ah??" As Thom Marshall (right), hesitated over his lines while he said them to Shirley Murdock (left), Linda Heering (middle), student director of "Our Town," coached him and the rest of the cast on to success.

"Our Town," Thornton Wilder's classic drama of life and death in a small town, was presented to a capacity audience last fall, November 20 and 21. The play, under the direction of Mr. Jimmie Lobaugh, required no scenery; but, with outstanding acting and excellent costumes, the play was considered a huge success by all.

All School Talent in the Spotlight.

Mary Ann Kempf, Katherine Kletner, John Kelly, and Roger Jeanson met in the lounge to work out last-minute details for the Spotlight.

Sheldon Stark and Heinrich Hellmann rehearsed their bongo number.

Judith Jackson's pantomime was a big hit.

"Accordian Boogie" was Sharon Kalinowski's special number.

"The Cat and the Canary" was the exciting All-School Play

This year's All-School play "The Cat and the Canary," by John Willard was a murder mystery. The play centered around the reading of the will of Cyrus Canby West, twenty years after his death. When Anabelle West was named heiress, some of her cousins proceeded to try to prove her mentally incompetent. As the play proceeded, it was discovered that there was an escaped maniac in the neighborhood. The final scenes exposed the villains and found Anabelle in love with a distant cousin, Paul.

Who did it? With the exception of a butler, the All-School Play had every characteristic of a thrilling mystery.

Jon Cressman, Linda Lewis, Susan Phillips, and Shirley "Chip" Bankson were all set for a wonderful evening.

The elaborate setting of the "Cinderella Ball" transformed the gymnasium into a courtyard of a medieval palace on the eve of April 17, 1959. A palace of enchantment, a sparkling fountain, and trees of fantasy were some of the true-to-life decorations that made the gala event a success. A "Cinderella" of the fairy-tale evening was presented with a glass slipper by Shirley "Chip" Bankson, Class President.

Cinderella's Ball

Nancy Streeter, Nancy Lowrie, Bonita Bukowski, and Frances Culp were among the many Juniors busily planning for the J-Hop of the Class of 1960.

At the stroke of midnight, Karen Lloyd became Port Huron High's own "Cinderella."

A life-size coach adorned the entrance into the land of fantasy.

The clock, about to strike at midnight, hung above the medieval gate at the end of the gym.

Students Surpass Goal

Co-chairmen of this year's magazine sales were Beth Dowell and Katherine Holth.

$10,500; the goal for the 1960 magazine sale, was surpassed due to the super salesmanship of the students. The sale was launched by an assembly put on by the student council, February 11. Mr. Joseph Shields, representative from the Educational Readers Service, gave information on sales techniques and spoke of the prizes to be awarded to the top salesman. Fourteen top prizes were offered this year as well as several money prizes. The drawing from the treasure chest each day was used as a stimulus for students to sell their quota. Free choco-pops were offered to those students who sold over ten dollars.

The entire student body attended the magazine sale prize assembly and listened intently as Jack Cressman and Dale Weaver announced the winners and awarded the prizes.

In Successful Magazine Sale.

The top four winners of this year's magazine sale were Jack Cressman, second prize; Thomas Barrett, first prize; Linda Heering, third prize; and Susan Faust, fourth prize.

At the end of each day, a student's name was drawn and the student was awarded a "Sleepy Puppy." Caroline Moore was one of the many students whose name was drawn.

Some of this year's happy winners -- Susan Faust, Judith Jackson, Robert Scheonrock, Lind Heering, Thomas Barrett, Jack Cressman, and Bonnie Kiley.

Graduates recieved Scholarships

Dallas Schneider, Thom Marshall, Robert Zimmer, and Gary Laughlin successfully passed the Navy College Aptitude Test required of candidates for the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps.

Doris Kolman received the highest score at P.H.H.S. in the fifty-minute Betty Crocker homemaking written examination this year. She was named Port Huron High's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Doris, a senior had her test paper entered in state competition. Throughout her high school career, Doris has been an honor roll student, dependable, and well liked.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation is an organization established to provide scholarship aid to outstanding, academically talented students who demonstrate extra-ordinary ability to benefit from a college education.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test is the preliminary screening device in the National Merit program. The qualifying test consists of five tests of general educational development, and is administered each spring to interest-students in their junior year of high school.

Ranking highest in the National Merit Scholarship Test were Richard LaLonde, Louis Westphal, Diane Langolf, Caroline Moore, Gregory Bush and Thom Marshall.

Many students received honors

Gary Laughlin, Louis Westfall, Robert Marshall, Nancy Streeter, and Diane Langolf were five of the six students who as juniors were selected as members of the National Honor Society. Elizabeth Spotts is not shown.

Last year the Port Huron Chapter of the National Honor Society was reactivated. The Society represents the fundamental objectives for which schools are instituted and gives recognition to those who have most nearly attained the desired ends.

The Constitution of the National organization recognizes four cardinal objectives as fundamental in education: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. To exalt these objectives and hold them over before the school as goals toward which all should strive is the purpose of the Society.

Nancy Streeter was chosen D.A.R. Good Citizen for 1960.

Every year it has been customary for the senior class and faculty to choose a senior girl who has shown outstanding traits in leadership to represent Port Huron High School as a "Daughters of the American Revolution" Good Citizen. Nancy Streeter was Port Huron High's D.A.R. representative for 1960. She was also offered a scholarship by the Port Huron Kiwanis Club to spend part of her summer at Camp Miniwanca, a leadership camp.

for their outstanding accomplishments.

Jane Harshbarger -- winner of the Hall of Fame Contest at Port Huron High.

The Honor Society has just completed one of its projects, the Hall of Fame contest. Every five years nominations are received from the entire country to nominate a great American to the Hall of Fame. Jane Harshbarger, a senior, won first prize of five dollars with her nomination of Thomas Alva Edison. Her entry was sent to Washington, D.C., and if enough nominations for Thomas Alva Edison have been received, he will be elected into the Hall of Fame.

Joan Leffler and Donald Haines took advantage of the special opportunity for advanced students offered them by Port Huron Junior College. German proved a fascinating and worth-while subject for these seniors.

Students enjoyed their noon hour.

Badminton proved to be a popular noon-hour sport.

Many boys spent their noon hours engrossed in a game of checkers.

Many girls used their noon time practicing for the girls' free shot contest.

Noon-hour ping pong was a favorite.

Students accepted Assemblies with enthusiasm.

Fight, team, fight! The peppy cheerleaders lead the student body in hearty yells at the pep assemblies.

Stephanie Older, Mistress of Ceremonies at the All School Play Assembly, listened intently to Rebecca Tranzo and Penny Gossman as they acted out a portion of the coming play, "Cat and the Canary," for the student body.

Captivating, delightful, fascinating! You name it -- P.H. had it in its assemblies. The assemblies, which were held on Thursday mornings, were enthusiastically accepted by the students. Everything from an inspirational Easter assembly to an informational Ann Landers assembly was featured by the Student Council.

At the farewell assembly for Mr. Tomlinson, the students gave a standing ovation for him as he was escorted by Mr. Ernest Gerke and Mr. Cecil "Brick" Fowler.

Diane Langolf, Treasurer; Karen Cushman, Doloris Tretheway, Louis Westphal, President; Ann MacMurray, and Deborah Williams, Secretary. TOP ROW: Dallas Schneider, Gregory Bush, Miss Meehan, Francis Easton, Gary Laughlin, Gary Langolf, Thom Marshall, Robert Alldredge, Daniel Yakes, Michael Warsinski, and Robert Marshall.

The Mu Alpha Theta, better known as the Math Club, is an organization in which it is an honor and a privilege to be a member. The general purpose of the Math Club is to arouse in excellent math students a desire to further their math education. Some of the members have put their minds to work on the project of reassembling and enlarging the computer, MORGAN. The meetings are held in room 109 the first Tuesday of each month. They are open to Senior High School and Junior College advanced math students who have a B plus average or better. The advisor of the group is Miss Catherine Meehan.

Radio

The members of the Radio Club took advantage of their many trips to local radio stations to explore the new and advanced world of electronic technology. They also spent many hours in Room 313, making radio sets and talking to hams the world over. All this benefited the boys in qualifying for operator licenses.

BOTTOM ROW: Kay Ann Shimskey, Mary Kay Krenke, Patricia Truchan, Marlene Gregory, Diane Langolf, Jeanne Ullrich, Sue Carol McGahey, and Marilyn Austin.
 SECOND ROW: Doloris Tretheway, Nancy Grimes, Lynne Lemmerhirt, Jane Harshbarger, Alta Williams, Karen Cushman, and Mrs. James Gauthier, advisor.
 TOP ROW: Elizabeth Peutrell, Carol Aitken, Ann Pickelhaupt, and Philomen Cooper.

The Delta Tri-Hi-Y was organized to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character, throughout the home, school, and community. These senior girls, all from Port Huron High School, met the second and fourth Thursday of each month at the Port Huron Y.M.C.A. to carry out their club's purpose.

Visual Aids

BOTTOM ROW:

James Mills, Thomas Mathers, Patrick O'Brien, Ervan Thompson and Patrick Kovach.

TOP ROW: Michael Janisch, David Spore, Bernard Cohoe, Heinrich Hellman, and Mr. Biberstine.

The Visual Aids staff, open to anyone interested, supplied the school with all the necessary equipment for showing movies, making announcements, and playing records. The staff members voluntarily forfeited their study hall to work for the department. They were ably trained by Mr. Crane Biberstine, their sponsor, in all phases of audio-visual management to assure immediate service to the classrooms.

If you felt kind of sick or all run down, the temperature-taking members of the Future Nurses Club were ready to help you. The Future Nurses Club, sponsored by Miss Frances Moore, was open to anyone interested in practical nursing, or a nursing career. The girls played an active part in the Volunteer Nursing Program at the Port Huron Hospital, where they learned patient-care and gained a great deal of experience. A Future Nurses Banquet and presentation of pins at the end of the school year were some of the highlights of the club's activities.

Future Teachers

The Future Teachers Club, which met the second and fourth Wednesday of each month in room 124, learned about the responsibilities and advantages of teaching. The members enjoyed practice teaching in elementary classrooms of various schools in the city. Projects, such as Christmas caroling, listening to guest speakers, and investigating the requirements for teaching strengthened the girls interest.

All letter winners having participated in an interscholastic sport were eligible for membership in the Port Huron High School Varsity Club, provided they met their scholastic requirements. The main purposes of the club was to further the cause of athletics in our school, and to promote school spirit.

The Varsity Club members showed their school spirit by building giant snowmen in the courts, hoping that East Detroit would be defeated in the next Port Huron - East Detroit basketball game.

As Robert Odle looked on, Carol Chesney and Lawrence Smith checked the special edition of the Lighthouse which was dedicated to Mr. Tomlinson.

Allen Stevens, Cornelia "Shudy" West, Jeanette Drescher, Katherine Holth, and Ann McNally made final plans for the next issue. The Lighthouse which was published twelve times a year kept the students well informed on the latest school news.

The "Lighthouse."

The Lighthouse worked toward promoting school spirit during the year. Beth Dowell and John Chidester put finishing touches on the sports bulletin board.

BOTTOM ROW: Lawrence Smith, Co-Feature Editor; Cornelia Shudy West, Editor; Katherine Holth, Editorial Chairman; Judith Jackson, Photographic; Ann McNally, News Editor; William Thompson. This smiling group did a terrific job in keeping our school spirit top notch.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders added to the excitement of the basketball season with their fine spirit and skill.

Girls' Athletic Association

"Twenty-one's a game!" -- The gym leaders took a few minutes out to sharpen up their ping-pong game.

Badminton was one of the most interesting and fast-moving sports enjoyed by the girls.

The correct way to serve the "Birdie" was shown to the rest of the leaders and girls by one of the outstanding badminton players.

G.A.A.

The girls' gym classes of PHHS were guided by the capable and willing leadership of the following girls:

Bottom Row: Suzanne Marinez, Joan Kilbourn, Nancy Booth, Susan Boerre, Barbara Keeney, Shirley Stickney, and Sharon Crouch. Second Row: Sandra Renno, Jane Hill, Constance Mericka, Mary Molinaro, Sharlene Mack, Doris Anger, and Constance Dussinger. Third Row: Beverly Burton, Nancy Tomlinson, Anne Hastings, Terry Lee Tarzwell, Barbara Potter, and Rebecca Peterson. Top Row: Beth Dowell, Mary Davis, Karen Vigrass, Sharon Briggs, Karen Cornelius, and Dona Kerr.

This year a new feature was added to the G.A.A. program -- a hockey team. The team attended several playdays with other Eastern Michigan League schools.

The Girls' Athletic Association

To head the active Girls' Athletic Association were the talented officers: Barbara Keeney, Vice-President; Sharon Briggs, Manager; Shirley Stickney, President; Bonita Bukowski, Secretary; Ann Marie Falk, Secretary-Treasurer, and Beth Dowell, Keeper of the Keys.

The G.A.A. council was represented by every grade. The members of the 1959-60 council were:

Bottom Row: Barbara Keeney, Sharon Briggs, Shirley Stickney, Bonita Bukowski, Ann Marie Falk, and Beth Dowell.

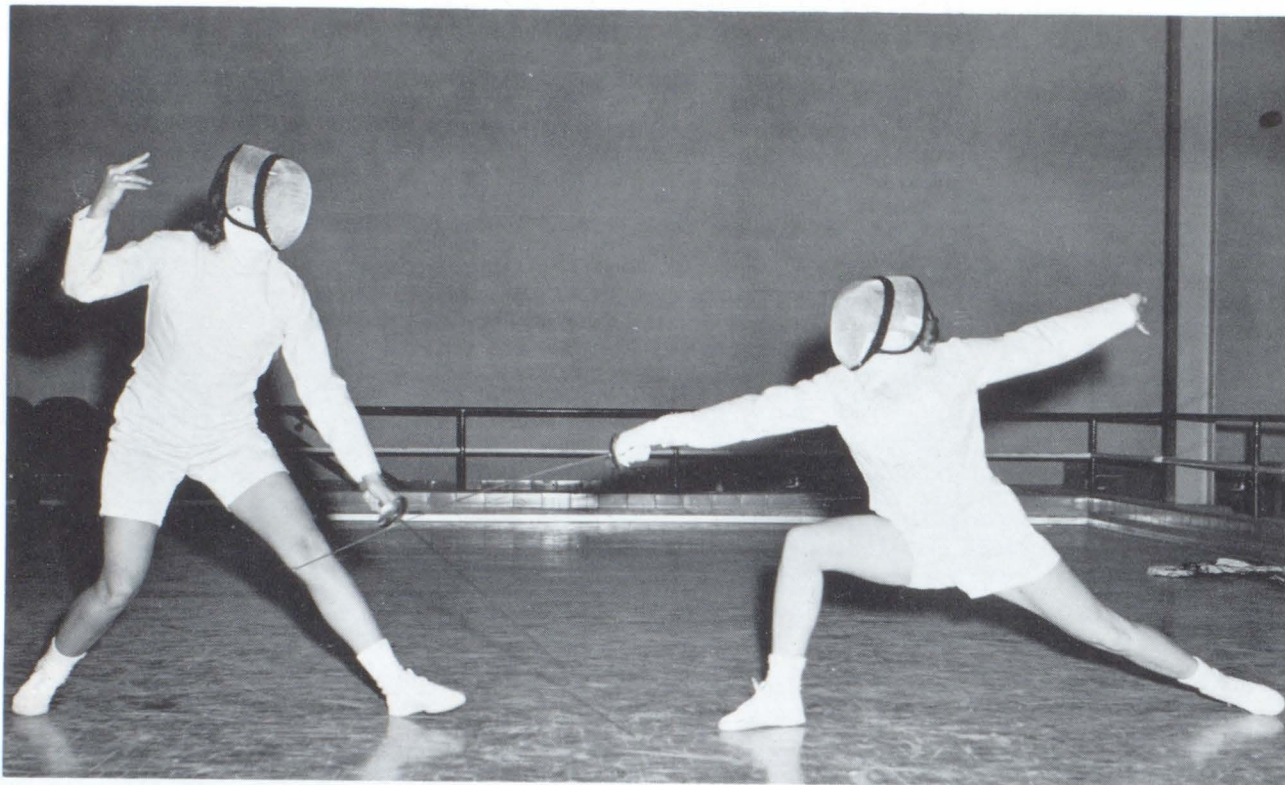

Second Row: Susan Boerre, Suzanne Marinez, Joan Kilbourn, Jacquelyn Hawes, Karen Cushman, Linda Heering, Sharon Kalinowski, and Carol Aitken .

Top Row: Billie Denney, Judith Kotter, Carol Pickelhaupt, Denise Christick, Gayle Montross, Barbara Guba, and Sandra Lotridge.

G.A.A.

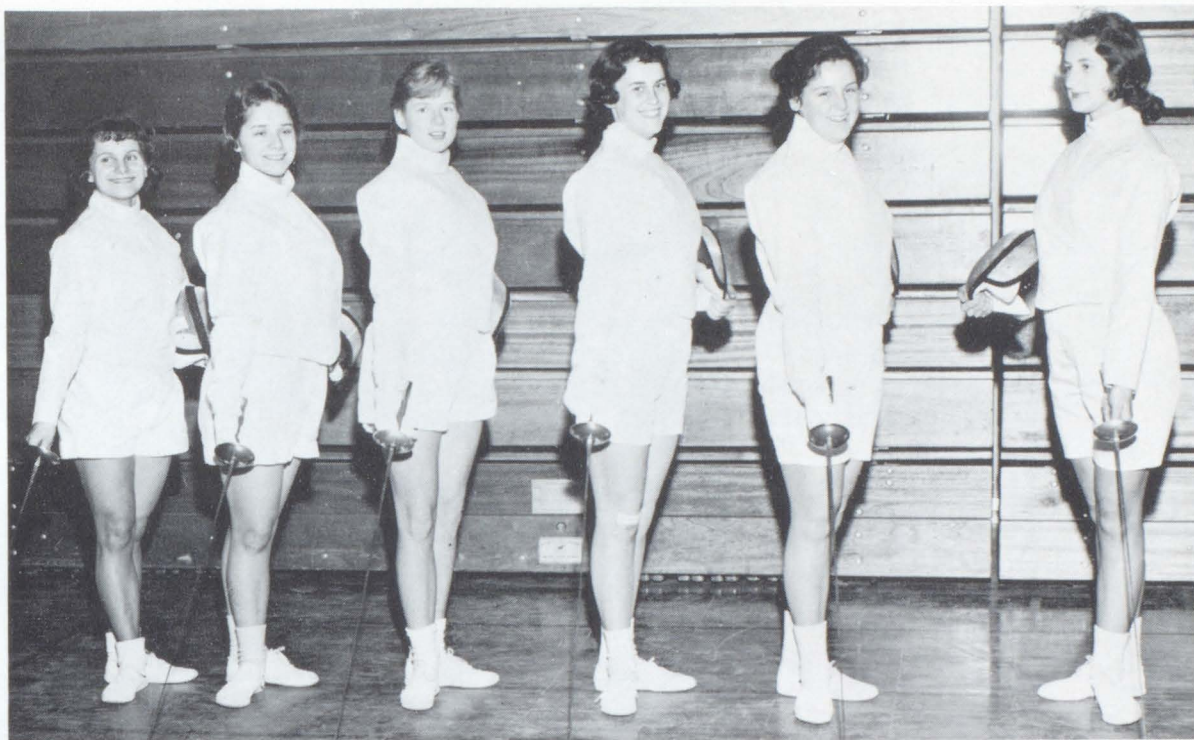

Jacquelyn Hawes and Shirley Stickney demonstrated a correct form which was used in fencing -- the high school's newest sport.

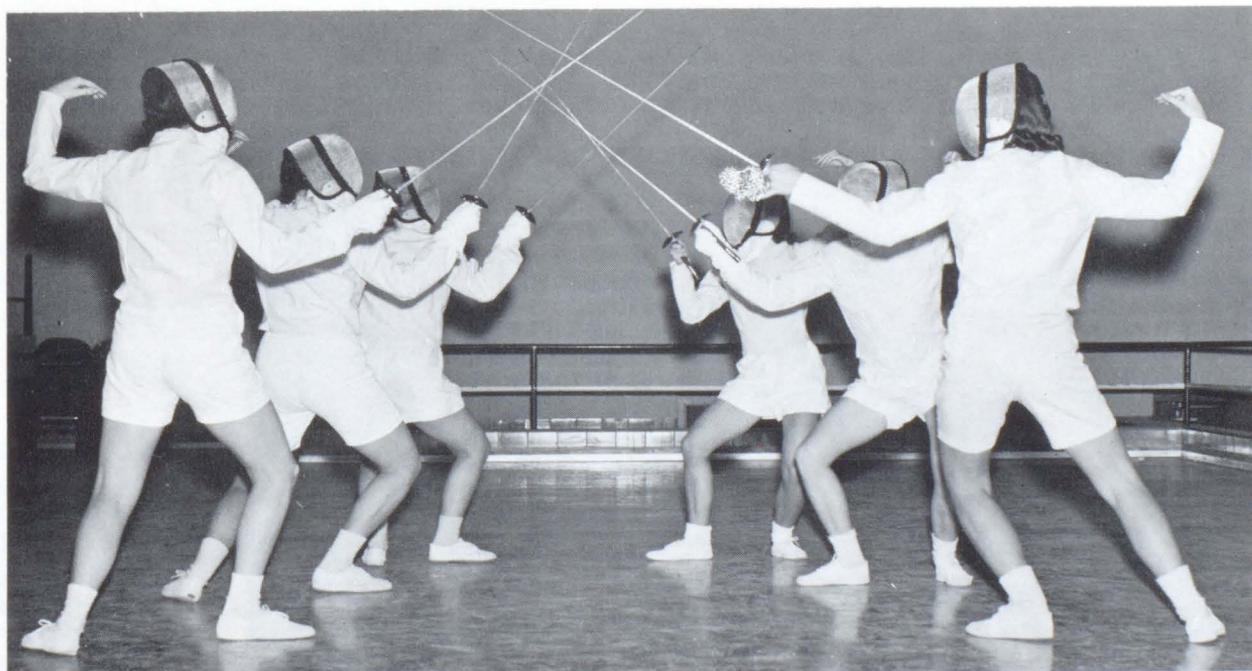

Badminton offered many fast-moving, exciting matches that were enjoyed by Jacquelyn Hawes, Karen Cornelius, Dona Kerr, Sharon Crouch, Susan Boerre, and Beth Dowell.

G.A.A.

The smart fencing uniforms were very proudly shown off by Beth Dowell, Susan Boerre, Shirley Stickney, Dona Kerr, Karen Cornelius, and Jacquelyn Hawes.

Fencing was enthusiastically accepted by the Girl's Athletic Association. The girls learned the fundamentals of fencing -- proper stance, correct form for advancing and retreating, and the grace and balance of the thrust lunge. The newly introduced sport proved very popular on Wednesday nights.

Junior class officers Ann McNally, treasurer; Anne Hastings, secretary; Sanford Henry, Vice-President; and John (Skip) Kelley, President, discussed the new class budget.

Beauty in full force was shown in the junior Homecoming Queen candidates.

Bottom Row: Lois Roy, Gayle Kovatch, Karen Gierman, Sandra Kaufman, Carol Moore, Joyce Hofmann, and Constance Collingwood.

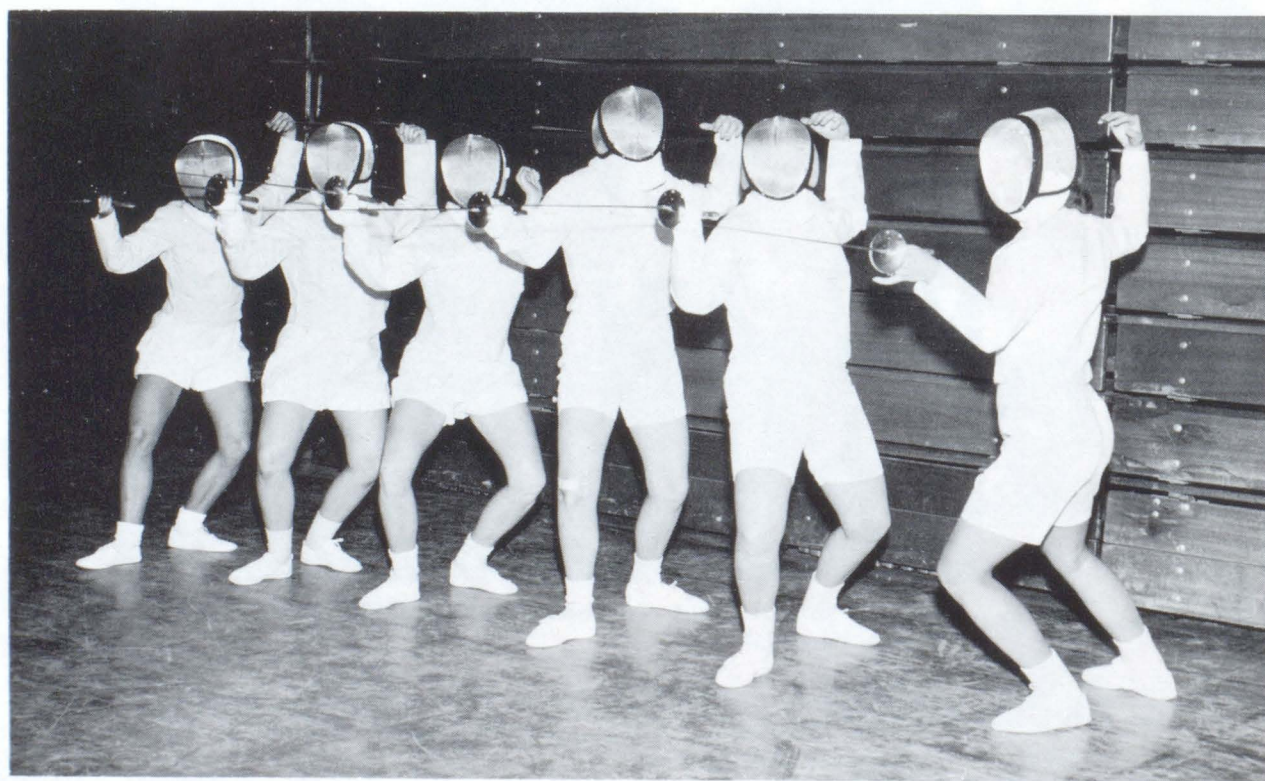

Second Row: Joan Lebold, Sharon Zuidema, Rebecca Peterson, Mary Alloway, Ann Hastings, Sandra Shover, and JoAnn Brooks.

Top Row: Judith Fester, Gloria Thompson, Linda Dalrymple, Ann Van Conant, Linda Maxon, and Maralee Raetzel.

Success to the juniors

In all gym classes, physical fitness exercises were one of the first things done when the girls came up to the gym floor.

Fencing provided a good opportunity for the girls to gain grace and poise.

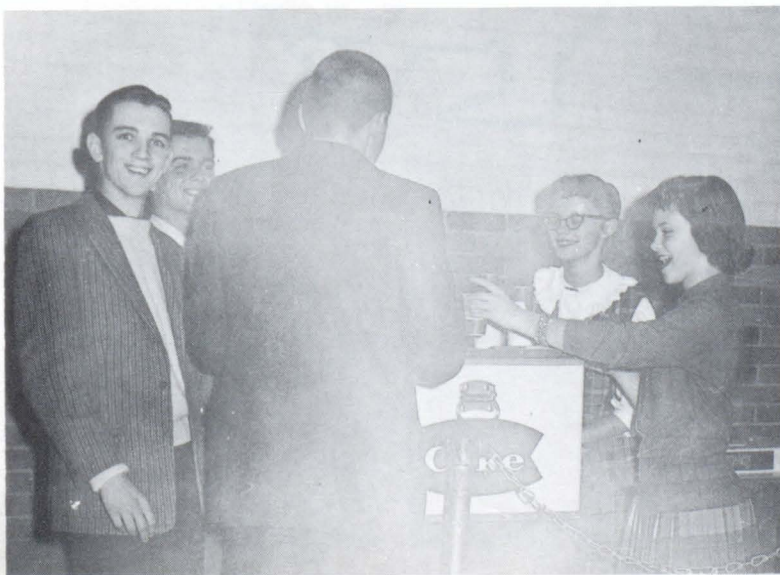

in their senior year!

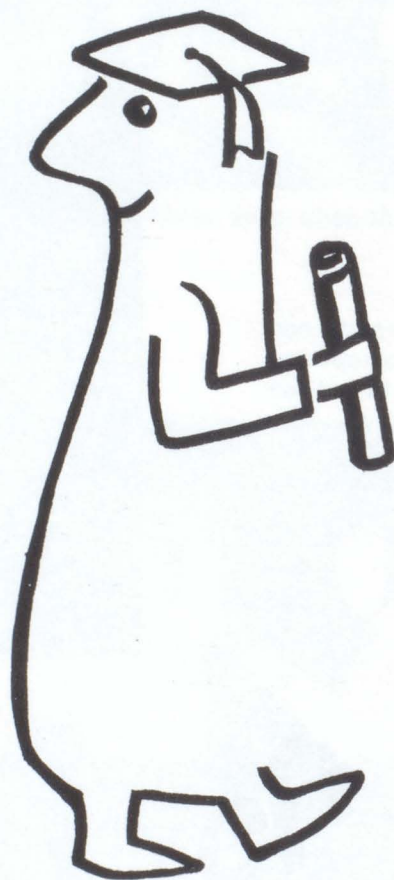

Seniors

When the five-minute warning bell sounded, students hurried to their various homerooms.

Intra-mural games at noon found the boys competing for the trophy awarded the winning team.

the "trade marks" of their class.

The homeroom teachers who have spent three years guiding, counseling, and working directly with the seniors on all class activities: Mrs. Lindsey (Advisor), Miss Kuhlenkamp, Miss Clark, Mrs. Benedict, Miss Eichhorn, Miss Rush, Mrs. Winslow, Mr. Lobaugh, Mr. Richards, Mr. Shelton, Mr. Smith, Mr. Sims, Mr. Beaudoin, and Mr. Anderle. Not shown are Mr. Lake, Mrs. Rantanen, Miss Warren, and Mr. Dickinson.

On June 2, 1960, the proud Seniors lined up for the graduation assembly. Class officers Frances Culp, Bonita Bukowski, Nancy Streeter, and Gary Laughlin lead the group into the gymnasium.

One of the busiest times of the year for the faculty was the recording of semester grades. Busy with this task were Mr. Phillips, Mr. Harrison, and Mr. Curti.

As the students of Port Huron High School met with the various teachers in classes, on committees, or in extra-curricular activities, some of their enthusiasm and interests became infectious; with faculty assistance, students strove for continual personal and educational development.

The teachers were ever mindful that they had the responsibility of guiding and training the leaders of the future. Students are grateful for the understanding and patience shown them.

"What happened to you?" Questioned Mr. Dickinson.

"I bet you can't do this," challenged Mr. Bond.

"Well, really, now!" exclaimed Mrs. Rantanen.

"Now, get this please," instructed Mr. Smith.

Mrs. Jacobus continued: "Now according to Sydney Harris...."

SCHOOL ALMA MATER

Let us join our hearts together
As we pledge our loyalty,
And we'll look to Alma Mater
For hopes to cherish endlessly.

In our hearts that are united
Are thoughts that never die,
We will keep in memory always
This our own Port Huron High.

Though the years ahead may number
More than those we've left behind,
Still the dreams will always linger
In our hearts, our lives, and our minds.

And may always we endeavor
To make achievements great,
So Port Huron may be proud
Of all those who graduate.

EASTERN MICHIGAN COLLEGE OF COMMERCE offers graduates of Port Huron and vicinity an opportunity to complete an approved business course ranging from 9 to 20 months without leaving the community. Graduates who have started commercial courses in high school may complete such courses in less than the scheduled period of time. Because of its proximity to the Blue Water district, courses may be completed without the expense of board and room away from home.

THE STAFF AND ADMINISTRATION of the College join in wishing the graduates of Port Huron High the best of everything, and cordially invite them to join its student body if the best of business education is desired.

At Christmas the spirit of everyone was typified in Santa Claus.

A few of the students relaxed on the school steps before going to their afternoon classes.

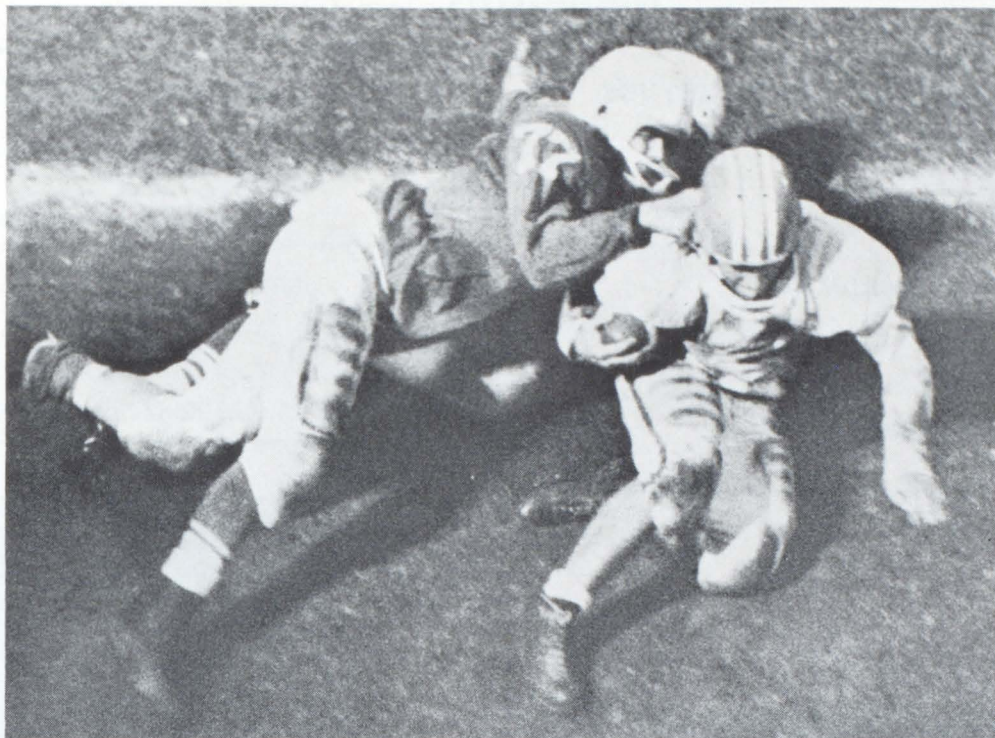

P. H. H. S. FIGHT SONG

Come on and--Join our song for Port Huron High.
 The best school in this land
 Grand and glorious we'll be victorious,
 The Red and White shall stand.
 Oh, she's the stronghold of our community:
 She stands for all that's Right!
 So fight, fight, fight, for Alma Mater,
 And show them with our might.

CHORUS

Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
 On to victory.
 Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
 Shall our watchword be.

So come on join our song for Port Huron High.
 Champions now are we!
 So fight, fight, fight! for Alma Mater,
 And sing for victory!

The Big Reds were again forced to make a down as the football season came to a close.
